

(c) crown copyright

No Case

W^m of Thomas Greenwood
No 301 17

W^m of J^r

No Ship Stated

The accompanying W^m is not valid for the receipt of any money in respect of services in the Royal Navy, the Liberator's Ship (which I understood is the "James Watt") / not being stated in it. Submitted that it be returned to the Secretaries in letter informing the accordingly.

W^m of J^r

18 April 1855

W^m of J^r

W^m of J^r

Returned to W^m of J^r in letter Book Page 169

The annexed Will was received by me this day with a Prize Order from the ~~Wife~~ Savannah Penwood ~~the~~ Wife of Thomas Penwood who calls himself in our Order a 1st Dep. City Officer

The Will, I apprehend, is invalid as it does name the Ship to which he belonged, - viz. the "James Watt" on board of which he is now serving.

The Wife's address is

Per Cornwall

W. Iron

Thomas Penwood
 18th April 1855

19

Wm. A. 301
The. Newwood
No. 1st St.
Returned to
B. April 1855