Casual Observations.

An occurrence at the fire yesterday afternoon proved conclusively that firemen can do more efficacious work in throwing and directing a stream of water if they go through the formality of attaching the pipe to the line of hose before water is turned on.
When these macadamised streets are dusty the result is a fine powder, which works its way into garments and dress-skirts, the latter particularly, in such a manner that in a ten-minute walk on a dusty sidewalk a lady, wearing an ordinary skirt, has by means of the "swish-ing" of the hem of the skirt removed every semblance of the pristine polish with which the shoes were furnished.
Those who drove into the country Sunday and Monday reported the roads in good condition for driving and that in many places the sidewalks had been driven upon and damaged to such an extent as to necessitate the expenditure of considerably more money for their repairs than otherwise the repairs would have required. If the sidewalk commissioners should make a $25-example of some degenerate who persists in violating the state law forbidding such misuse of the sidewalk, it would be well.

A Binghamton man choked his landlady because she dunned him for his board bill and he was arrested for "noisy conduct," when he was only trying to keep her from making a noise.

Fatally Burned.

Ransom Crandall, the two-year-old son of John Crandall, living near Campville, met a terrible death yesterday afternoon by being burned so seriously that he died within two hours after the accident.
The mother was away from the house and the child, it is supposed, ignited his clothing while playing with the kitchen fire. Another child, about four years old, attempted to give alarm to their father in another room, but the father, who is of unsound mind, did not realize the grave condition of affairs and the child was mass of flames when help came, too late to save his life. In two hours death came to relieve his sufferings.
The funeral will be held at 1 p. m. tomorrow; interment at Apalachin.

Coming Friday.

In announcing the coming attraction, "Macbeth," that will hold forth at Wilson Opera House Friday evening of this week in the striking scenes from that great play, it may be expedient to say that many beautiful scenes may be faithfully portrayed by two players. Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Combination was organized in 1892.
From New York city to St. Paul, Chicago, to Louisville, these interpreters of classical plays are known in the many hundreds of cities and towns.
Mr. Lindley carries a complete wardrobe, requiring massive trucks to transport his fine costumes, swords, armor, etc., which are true to many years of close historic study of each character.
Principal Colegrove of the Bradford (Pa.) high school, in a letter, says: "We saw in Mr. Lindley's acting the veritable Shylock himself, moving and speaking before us."

Three Times Are Too Many.

AFTERNOON
DESPATCHES.

(By Associated Press Special Wire.)
LAWYER PATRICK HELD.
New York, April 16.—Justice Jerome today held Lawyer Albert T. Patrick for the grand jury on the charge of murdering the late millionaire, William Marsh Rice.

you notice. To be sure it's out and all out, take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Ladies on Diamond Frames.

During the past year many fair equestrians have been seen riding astride over the Central Park bridge path, and it is intimated that a well-known riding academy in Philadelphia has for some time past encouraged the new style of saddle among its women patrons. With such progress being made among horse-women, it is likely that the day is not far distant when the woman on a diamond frame wheel will cease to be a curiosity to man, or a source of nervous prostration to her less venturesome sisters. Without question, there is more rigidity to and more satisfaction and comfort in riding a diamond frame than a drop frame wheel, and the woman who prefers such mount, if properly costumed, is perfectly safe in adopting it.

Scrofula, salt rheum, erysipelas and other dis-treating eruptions yield quickly and possibly to the cleansing, purifying power of Burdock Blood Bitters.

At Binghamton.

Among the Owego people, who went to Binghamton today to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church of Binghamton, which began at 9:30 this morning in the First Presbyterian church, were Miss Storrs, Miss Frances L. Storrs, Mrs. G. B.
Lewis, Miss Fanny Young, Mrs. Emma O. Bravo, Mrs. F. G. Houk, Hon. H. A.
Clark, Mrs. G. D. Young and Mrs. E. J.

Eight Fine Horses.

Eight fine horses were received in Ithaca yesterday from the Stephens & Seaman stable of Binghamton. They were driven here by two men who started from Binghamton Saturday morning.
They reached Owego the first night and started from there yesterday morning, arriving here about noon.—Ithaca Journal.

life. Was almost wild. Doan's Ointment cured me quickly and permanently, after doctors had failed." C. F. Corawell, Valley Street, Sauger

Caught a Dreadful Disease.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M.
Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1655 Milwaukee avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend to my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself.
It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by W. B. Partridge, druggist.

APALACHIN.

APALACHIN, April 10.—Easter services were held in the M. E. church on Sun-was rendered.

house.

academy, is spending this week in Apalachin.
Claud and Tessie Spencer have been spending a few days visiting friends at

A BIG CLOTHING EVENT.

Spring is advancing; shall we compose ourselves to make regular prices on our new goods, to accept business in the casual, careless way?
We know our customers would look to us to start the season with an offering of unusual value; so we pushed a claim into the heart of the wholesale market, and succeeded in capturing the balance of a manufacturer's spring stock of men's and boy's high grade suits at a special low figure. These goods are purchased and marked to sell at $12.50 and $15.00 but, anxious to fulfil your expectations, we have decided to sacrifice them at $10.00 each.

brown mixtures, in all the new spring effects.
