

Excerpt from:

The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway System And Representative Employees

A HISTORY OF THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND_&
PACIFIC RAILWAY FROM ITS INCEPTION, TOGETHER WITH INTRODUCTORY CHAPTERS, TRACING THE PROGRESS OF STEAM RAILROAD
TRANSPORTATION FROM THE EARLIEST STAGES, IN AMERICA AND ABROAD.

BIOGRAPHICAL PUBLISHING COMPANY, GEORGE RICHMOND, Pres; S.
HARMER NEFF, Secretary; C. R. ARNOLD, Treasurer CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. 1900.

J.E. DUBREUIL, a popular employee of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway Company, whose position is that of cashier in the treasurer's office at Topeka, Kansas, has been engaged in railroad work since 1887. He began as a clerk at Topeka in the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway offices, where he worked until the fall of 1890. In October, of that year, he engaged in business on his own account and continued this until the fall of 1892. He then spent two months as a clerk in Treasurer E. Wilder's office of the Santa Fe Railroad. In September 1892, he entered the Rock Island company's employ as a clerk under Paymaster Hodson, with whom he worked until March, 1897. His next position was under Assistant Auditor Morris. In September 1898, he was transferred to the treasurer's office, as the auditor's office was changed to Chicago, Illinois. In January 1899, Mr. Dubreuil was made cashier under I. G. Hastings who has since been succeeded by Assistant Treasurer Dixcy. Mr. Dubreuil is well qualified for his position and he commands the esteem and respect of all who know him.

Mr. Dubreuil is a native of New York City, and a son of Lewis L. Dubreuil, who was a piano maker by trade. He was educated at St. Vincent de Paul's school on 24th street, New York City. When he left school, he secured a position in a florist's store, at Yonkers, New York. Leaving New York City, he secured a like position with Vick, a prominent florist of Rochester. On quitting this, he went directly to Topeka, Kansas, where he has lived ever since, and where he has hosts of friends. He was joined in marriage with Anna M. Wiley, and they have three children, named as follows: Louis T., aged ten years; Julia E., aged seven years; and Joseph E., aged three years.

Mr. Dubreuil is a member of the following fraternities in which he takes a very prominent part: A. F. & A. M., Siloam Lodge, No. 225, in which he has served as secretary ten consecutive terms; Topeka Council, No. 1057, Royal Arcanum; Topeka Lodge, No. 11, A. O. U. W.; and Sunflower Camp, No. 527, Modern Woodmen of America.