

New Orleans, La

March 9 1982

Dear Claudette,

The enclosed papers are what we got from St Domingue and at Kingston, Jamaica.

This is all I have because being a religious I don't want to keep my family history, and have no need of them so I gave all I have to my brothers and sisters.

Besides I think this is all you need of your past history of the Marcel de Guiraud family. Keep in mind that you are descended from François Marie Marchant Vaillant de la Vergne.

We have been working many years on our family Tree. Material from this New Orleans etc. write to France, St Domin- que, Jamaica etc. we visited many places in and around New Orleans. We got a good many articles from New Orleans.

Thank God it's all over as it was hard work.

We know that Grand-fa Moral de Lira Raymond married twice not three times, his first wife was Felice Anais Cunningham. It is from the above grand-parents that we my siblings) originated. They had seven children.

The second wife was Marie Athelie d'Aguiar and it is from latter grand-parents that you originated.

My parents & siblings were very close to Grand-fa Moral as my two oldest brothers stayed with him while they went at Soule College.

Besides being a traveling salesman he came home often.

We were also very close to Uncle George as he too was a traveling salesman and came to New Roads often. Sometimes he would bring us little gifts.
To my sister, Nita, he gave her a beautiful golden chain + cross she wore it many years. In the forties (I think) he came to New Roads with a Grand-son.
We were all so happy to see them.
My brother Felix, my two sisters Nita and Rosella + I visited him at Lake Charles at least twice.
That was really a happy reunion.

My sister Nita, who will be 90 in July remembers a lot about our family of the past.
She use to ask my father many questions about his

his mother, Felicie Anais Cunningham who died at 38. Her baby, Marie was only 20 days old. She caught a cold, pneumonia followed and this was the end. She ~~was~~ buried in her step-father's General La Coste's tomb in St. Louis Cemetery on North Claiborne Ave. New Orleans.
We visited the grave but it is very old, and not well kept as near relatives are all dead.

Grand-pa Morel married two years later to Marie Althee D'Aquin in 1871. They too had seven children.

About three years ago
Emerson Morel, Edna D'Aquin
Bertha & I went to New Orleans to find out more about Grand-pa Morel. We were told the he was buried in Edgar, La, but we could not find <sup>the tomb</sup> where he was buried, as the pastor of the church was not at home.

But we went to the home of of Mrs Perret, that is the baby who sat on Grand-ma Alice's lap when the picture was taken, that is the one you sent me. It was interesting to meet them and we talked much about our family.

My grand-father's parents were Charles Aymé (spelt also Aimé) Chaufayt Morel de Guiramonde and Josephine Dupaty. (found in the second page I sent-

God love you.

I am, Lovingly
Sr. Ignatius Morel
