Another appeal to the readers of this paper. I am here to tell you that I want your eggs for cash, whether you buy goods of me or not. To the people in town, you had better investigate, it wont cost anything and see where you do the best for the money. It pays. Puritan flour is as good as you can buy at any price and backed by as good a mill as any in the United States. I have a good staple line of groceries at a very reasonable price county and settled in Webster township in 1856, he being at that time eleven years old. George Wight was widely known throughout the southwest part of the county and was universally loved and respected. His genial disposition and large heartedness won for him many friends whose sympathy will go out to the bereaved family. He was married to Susan Ettien in 1869 and she with three sons and four daughters are bereft by the loss of a loving companion, a kind and indulgent parent.
