MEMBER OF KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

JOHN CASHIN, a blind newsboy, of Atlanta, Ga., hopes to regain his eyesight when the doctors transfer the cornea of eyes of Robert L. Clay, who is condemned to be hanged at an early date for the murder of his wife. The operation will be performed immediately after the execution. Noted eye specialists have faith in the success of the undertaking.

GOV. MARSHALL was notified at Indianapolis on the 20th, of his nomination as vice president on the Democratic ticket.—He replied in a brief speech, accepting the nomination and pledging himself for the Baltimore platform. He takes the middle of the road in great issues and declares he is opposed to extreme action of public questions.

S. C. Franklin, the watch inspector, is Roosevelt's original Bull moose "in the 11th district congressional race. He is sporting a full set of antlers which has grown through his head covering. On one prong appears Willsou and on Marshal's colors, on the other Seavy is in evidence.

On Bull moose campaign literature appears the picture of H. H. Seavy Progressive candidate for congress, dressed in his overall working clothes, as he appears when on d. ty, pushing a locomotive through the mountains.

THE SIGNAL will be twenty five years old on September 27th, having been established during that month in the year 1887, by James Maret and J. B. Vowels, and was printed on an army press on which was used hand ink rollers.

In this issue will be found the card of Mr. H. H. Seavy, of Corbin, who is the candidate of the Progressive party for Congress from the Eleventh District.

THE Ohio man who says he has "the biggest bull moose head" doesn't meet the particular kind of moonshine he has been using.

Col. Roosevelt is said to be the only man on record, who thinks lightning ought to strike three times in the same place.

The three big parties will soon have their campaigns under way, and the people in general will have to take to the woods.

Forty eight years ago Judge T. Z Marrow spoke at this place for Lincoln, in the campaign for the presi'en

ALL indications point to the triumphal election of Wilson and Marshall.

PRESIDENT Wilson sounds pretty good, thank you.

PIKE FAMILY REUNION.

Rev. A. J. Pike is planning one in Brodhead, Ky., Sept 26-?1912.

My father, Jacob Pike, was married to my mother, Miss Bethana Jones, in the year 1846. And to this union there were born eleven children, eight boys and three girls. My mother died when Jacob Pike, jr., was two years old, he being the youngest of the eleven children. My father remained a widower fifteen years and then married a second wife, and they had six children born to them, three boys and three girls, thus making him the father of seventeen children. He died in 1895, leaving these seventeen children without a father, and eleven of us without a mother. It is marvelous to know that they are all living at the preset time, but scattered promiscuously from the Atlantic to the the Pacific Oceans. And the writer being the elder son and having not only the responsibility and care, but only as a brother (but to some of the younger ones) that of a father. This double relation has filled me with a great anxiety for their well being and happiness. And this anxiety has led me to locate and correspond with each one and I have secured a promise from them all to respond to this call. They have all agreed to meet at my home in the town of Brodhead on September 28, 1912. Our plan is to ask the executive board of the Rockcastle Association to call their fifth Sunda meeting in September for Brodhead and we can get through with our work as a board on Saturday and Saturday night of the 28th. And on Sunday the 29th we wish to invite all denominations of christians, and all our friends in Rockcastle and adjoining counties to come and spend the day with us in the fair grounds in Brodhead. And we will have what we call a basket dinner on the ground. And we ask all, who can conveniently do so, to bring a good supply of refreshments, so all may be supplied. We will have a number of preachers present and will have a re union sermon preached at ten o'clock a.m. We want to spend the day in eating and drinking, preaching and singing. So we cordially invite all our friends and we hope that will take in every body (for we hope we have no enemies) to come and spend the day with us and enjoy this re-union, in anticipation of that re union in heaven, where we all hope to meet our fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters, in that home our Saviour is preparing for us, on conditions we are prepared to join that company. I have assurance from many in different parts that they will be with us. Respectfully, A. J. PIKE.

WITHERS

There was another very hard rain fall here Tuesday.—Messrs. Victor Price, Bob Mullins and Emmett Anderson, Misses. Katie Price, Sallie, Ada and Lillie Mullins, Pearl Anderson and Ola Roberts, all visited Mr. and Mrs. Joel English, of Crab, Saturday. All report a most delightful boat ride in Rockcastle river, and on returning home in the evening Missss Victoria, Dora and Nettie Mullins all came and spent Saturday night and Sunday with them, and also Messrs. Emmett, Otto and Fred Mullins were visitors Saturday night and Sunday.—There has been a protracted meeting going on at Piney Branch the past week. There were several additions. — Mrs. Green Gabbard remains about the same. —Mrs. Sudie Durham and children of this place, and John French and family, who are out from Oklahoma are visiting their sister, Mrs. Bell Parsley, of Oakley, this week. — Road working has begun in this part and roads were never washed out so badly as they are now, and need work very bad.

Away back yan' when Cull McClure was younger than he is now, he surprised the congregation at Mt Pisgah church one Sunday by falling through the ceiling while preaching was going on. He had gone into the loft to hear the sermon and at the same time, to avoid paying the preacher as much as a nickel.

TOBACCO GROWERS TO MEET.

Start Movement to Fix a Price For This Year's Crop.

Lexington, Ky.—A number of tobacco growers at Owingsville resolved that there is failure at the selling end of the business from lack of co-operation of the producers and they decided to ask all persons who are interested in a co-operative movement to making a paying price for the 1912 crop of tobacco to meet in Lexington, August 28.

THELBY BAPTISTS MEET.

Pleasureville.—The Shelby county association of the Baptist church, with twenty-seven churches represented and with prominent ministers and laymen from different parts of the state, was in session here. Among the prominent ministers here were the Rev. George D. Kager, Louisville; the Rev. W. D. Powell, Louisville; the Rev. J. W. Porter, Lexington; the Rev. J. N. Prestridge, Louisville, and Arthur Yager, president of Georgetown College.

WHITE SNAKE IS KILLED.

Carlisle, Ky.—A white snake, the first one ever seen here, has been killed by James Delaney, near Headquarters, this county, and is now at the undertaking establishment of Mathers, Potts & Co. here. The snake is snow white and two and one-half feet long. It was seen near Headquarters one year ago, when an effort was made to kill it, but it escaped, to be killed this year by Mr. Delaney. It is attracting much attention here.

NATIONAL REUNION OF FAMILY.

Danville, Ky.—The second national biennial reunion of the Vandivier family was held at Graham Springs, ten miles from this city, and was attended by more than 200 descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vandiver. There were fifty-five present from Franklin county, Ind., which was the largest number from any one county. Peter Vandiver and his wife came to America from Holland in the early pioneer days.

RUN OVER BY WAGON.

Hodgenville, Ky.—Everett Woods, 9 was hurt fatally when a heavily-loaded express wagon of E. S. Farrill, of Buffalo, ran over his breast, crushing him The accident occurred at the entrance to the fair grounds. The boy is the son of Will Woods, a prominent contractor. The boy was trying to climb on the wagon when the accident occurred.
