

THE ENGLISH ANCESTORS OF JEFFREY ESTY OF SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS

Communicated by Gay Esty Bangs of Chicago, Illinois

JEFFREY ESTY, the emigrant and founder of the American family of Esty or Estey settled in Salem, Massachusetts in 1635 or 1636, where he resided 'till 1651, when he removed to Long Island, N.Y., and became a land owner at Huntington and Southold. He died at Little Neck January 4, 1659, and in his will mentions his son, Isaac, and daughter Catherine the wife of Henry Seudder.

Jeffrey Esty, in all probability, was born in 1587, in the Parish of Freston, three and one half miles south of the City of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, England. He was the eldest son of Christopher and Ann (Arnold) Easty of Freston, who married in 1586. Christopher Esty died in 1621 and in his will mentions his eldest son Jeffery Eastie to whom he leaves money. The widow, Ann, died two years after and in her will she appoints her son, Jeffery Eastie, executor, to whom also she bequeathed houses in Freston. Jeffrey Esty was the grand-son of Jeffrey Esty of Hintlesham, whose name is given in the Subsidy List of Suffolk as one of those taxed at Hintlesham in 1568, though he may have been there much earlier, but apparently he was the only one of the name in the county at that time. He died in 1592, and in his will, recorded in the Consistory Court of Norwich, mentions his seven sons, and especially stipulates that his Bible be given to young Jeffery, the son of his son, Christopher.

ISAAC ESTY, the son of Jeffrey, the grandson of Christopher and great-grandson of Jeffery of Hintlesham, was born in Freston, in November, 1627. The records of St. Peter's Church gives his baptism as, " Isaac Eastie, ye sonne of Jefferie Eastie, baptized November 17, 1627 ". Isaac came to Salem in 1636 with his father, and became a citizen of Topsfield in 1651. He was a staunch Puritan and was ever prominent in the affairs of the community. His wife was the noted MARY ESTY, the Salem witchcraft martyr of 1692. Isaac Esty died in 1712, at Topsfield. In 1710 he had deposed in County Court that his age was " about 82 years ".

The name Esty was not common in England. The earliest reference found is in 1484 in the County of Essex, when Richard Estey made his will at Kelvedon, leaving a son, Richard. Thomas Estey made his will in 1517, at Alresford, in Essex, having a son William, and other children not named. From this county the family spread into Sussex and Suffolk & Cambridge. In the former county the same given names occur in Suffolk. The most prominent of the name was Rev .George Estey, born in 1565 the son of John Estey of Cambridge. He was a graduate of Cambridge University, and pastor of St. Mary's, Bury St. Edmunds in 1601. His son, Rev. Benjamin Estey, from 1627 to 1662, was vicar of West Bradenham in Norfolk County.

THE ESTEY FAMILY OF NEW BRUNSWICK

The Estey family of New Brunswick, Canada, trace their ancestry from JEFFREY ESTEY, a farmer, born in England about the year 1515, and resided for all or most of his lifetime at Hintlesham, Suffolk County, England. His name is recorded on the Subsidy List of Suffolk County as one of those taxed at Hintlesham in the year 1568, where his occupation was described as a "husbandman". His Last Will and Testament was registered at the Consistory Court of Norwich, dated December 6, 1592, and proved on October 12, 1593. In his will Jeffrey mentions his seven sons and grandson, "young Jeffrey".

The names of his seven children were :-

1. John Estey
2. Edmund Estey
3. William Estey
4. Thomas Estey
5. Richard Estey
6. Jefferye Estey
7. CHRISTOPHER ESTEY

CHRISTOPHER ESTEY, the seventh son of Jeffrey Estey was born at Hintlesham, date unknown, and removed to Freston, Suffolk County, where he married ANN ARNOLD of Chattinham, Suffolk County, on May 1st, 1586. He was a yeoman all his lifetime and passed away on or about November 7th, 1621. Ann outlived her husband by a year and one half, her decease occurring on or about the 26th day of May, 1623.

Their eight children were : -

1. JEFFREY ESTEY
2. Edward Edmonde Estey
3. Christopher Estey
4. George Estey
5. Edmonde Estey
6. Thomas Estey
7. Elizabeth Estey
8. Anne Estey

Note : The second son shown above was named " Edward " in his father's will, and, in his mother's will, the name, " Edmonde the elder ". The fifth son shown above was named " Edmonde the yonge " in his mother's will.

JEFFREY ESTEY, the eldest child of Anne (Arnold) and Christopher Estey, was born in or about 1586, at Suffolk County, in England. He was the progenitor of the Estey Family in America, appearing first as a proprietor in Salem, Massachusetts, in 1636. He remained at Salem until 1651, when he sold his property and removed to Southold, Long Island, New York. He remained at Southold until the 12th day of August, 1657, when he again conveyed his holdings and removed to East Neck, a small community near Huntington, Long Island, New York. He died at Huntington on January 4, 1657. Jeffrey Estey had married MARGARET PITT (or Pett), whose parentage is unknown. The names of their two children were: -

1. ISAAC ESTEY
2. Catherine Estey

ISAAC ESTEY, the son of Margaret and Jeffrey Estey, was born at Freston, Suffolk County, England, in November, 1627, and was baptized on November 17, 1627. While still a boy he emigrated to America with his father and mother, residing at Salem, Massachusetts. Prior to 1660, he had moved to Topsfield, Massachusetts, B.N.A., where he married MARY TOWNE the daughter of Joannah (Blessing) and William Towne of Topsfield. She was born at Yarmouth, Norfolk County, England, in 1634, and baptized at the St. Nicholas Church on August 24th, 1634. Mary (Towne) Easty (or Estey) was one of the unfortunate witchcraft martyrs of Salem, Massachusetts, and wrote a remarkable letter to the judge of the court denying the charge preferred against her. Although a most worthy woman, she was executed as a witch at Salem on September 22, 1692. The following account of Mary Estey's arrest and conviction for practicing witchcraft at Topsfield, Massachusetts appeared in the book, "Witchcraft in Salem Village in 1692", by Burt Franklin, 1916 : -

" Mary Easty, wife of Isaac Easty of Topsfield, and sister of Rebecca Nurse and Sarah Cloyse, was fifty-eight years of age in 1692, and the mother of seven children. The Eastys lived on, and owned one of the largest farms in the town. It was the farm known to the present generation as the Peirce farm, having for many years been owned by Col. Thomas Peirce, and occupied by him as a summer residence until his death in 1885. Previous to the ownership of Col. Peirce the proprietor was Mr. B. W. Crowninshield. A warrant for the arrest of Mary Easty was issued by the magistrates on April 21st, and she was examined on the following day and committed to prison. During her examination, the magistrates said to her : " Confess if you be guilty "; which she replied : " I will say it, if it was my last time, I am clear of this sin. "

Her answers to this and other questions had evidently led the magistrates to have doubts as to her guilt, for they asked the accusing girls if they were certain this was the woman, and they all went into fits. Subsequently they said: " O, Goody Easty, Goody Easty, you are the woman, you are the woman. " On May 18th, for reasons which the present age knows not nor ever can know, Mary Easty was released. Two days after her discharge, Mercy Lewis, living at Constable John Putnam's, had a fit and performed in a manner usual to the accusing girls. A messenger was sent for Ann Putnam to come and tell who afflicted Mercy. At Ann's home he found Abigail Williams, and the girls visited Mercy Lewis and declared that they saw Mary Easty and John Willard afflicting her body. John Putnam and Benjamin Hutchinson went to Salem the night of the 20th of May and procured from Hathorne a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Easty. She was apprehended the next morning and taken to Beadle's in Salem for examination. "

" After midnight she was aroused from sleep by the unfeeling marshall, torn from her husband and children carried back to prison, loaded with chains, and finally consigned to a dreadful and most cruel death. She was an excellent and pious matron. Her husband, referring to the transaction nearly twenty years afterwards, justly expressed what all must feel, that it was a hellish molestation. "

For the second time Mary Easty was examined and committed to jail. She remained there from May 21 until the September sitting of the court, when she was tried, convicted and sentenced. Previous to the trial she united with her sister, Sarah Cloyse, in a request to the court that the judges would act as counsel for them and directed them wherein they stood in need. This request to the judges after several trials had been held would indicate that such service was not being rendered to the accused persons. That this was the fact we have already seen in other cases. Instead of acting as council for the prisoners, the judges usually performed more nearly the part of prosecuting attorneys, and cross-examined the accused, often in a brow-beaten manner. These sisters also asked that witnesses in their behalf might be examined. They especially named the pastor and others of the church in Topsfield. If those persons previously tried had been allowed their rights in this particular, why did Mary Easty and Sarah Cloyse petition thus to the court? After conviction, and while in jail awaiting execution, Mary Easty petitioned the Governor, judges and ministers:

" Not for my own life, for I know I must die, and my appointed time is set, but the Lord he knows it is that, if it be possible, no more innocent blood may be shed, which undoubtedly cannot be avoided in the way and course you go in By my own innocency, I know you are in the wrong .. I would humbly beg of you that I would humbly beg of you that your honors would be pleased to examine these afflicted persons strictly, and keep them apart some time, and likewise to try some of these confessing witches, I being confident there is several of them has belied themselves and others, as will appear, if not in this world, I am sure in the world to come whither I am now going."

Sarah Cloyse, who was convicted and sentenced at the same time, was never executed. No record or tradition remains to tell us why she was saved from the slaughter. Hutchinson says, speaking generally of the seven persons sentenced at this time but not executed:- "Those who were condemned and not executed, I suppose all confessed their guilt. I have seen the confession of several of them." Mary Easty was hung on Thursday, September 22. "When she took her last farewell of her husband, children and friends, she was," says Calef, "as is reported by them present, assidious, religious, distinct and affectionate as could well be expressed, drawing tears from the eyes of all present." Isaac Estey was a cooper by profession, however, he often was employed as a selectman, tythingman and surveyor of highways and fences. He served on the Grand Jury at Ipswich, Massachusetts, and took the Oath of Allegiance in 1677. Isaac Estey died in 1712, his will being dated March 26, 1709 and proved on June 11, 1712.

The children of Mary (Towne) and Isaac Estey were :-

- | | |
|-----------------|--------------|
| 1. ISAAC | ESTEY |
| 2. Joseph | Estey |
| 3. Sarah | Estey |
| 4. John | Estey |
| 5. Hannah | Estey |
| 6. Benjamin | Estey |
| 7. Samuel | Estey |
| 8. Jacob | Estey |
| 9. Joshua | Estey |

ISAAC ESTEY, the eldest child of Mary (Towne) and Isaac Estey Senior, was born at Topsfield, Massachusetts, on or about 1656. Like his father, he was a surveyor of highways. In 1694, he acted as a tythingman or constable, and officiated as a selectman in 1696. Isaac Estey took the Oath of Allegiance in 1677, at the same time as his father. He married ABIGAIL KIMBALL, the daughter of Mary (Bradstreet) and John Kimball of Ipswich, Massachusetts. She was born at Ipswich on March 22, 1667. After the decease of Isaac Estey in 1714, his widow remarried to William Poole of Reading, Massachusetts, where she died on February 12th, 1760.

The ten children of Abigail (Kimball) and Isaac Estey were:-

- | | | |
|-----|----------------|--------------|
| 2. | Mary | Estey |
| 2. | Abigail | Estey |
| 3. | Sarah | Estey |
| 4. | Isaac | Estey |
| 5. | Aaron | Estey |
| 6. | Jacob | Estey |
| 7. | Hannah | Estey |
| 8. | RICHARD | ESTEY |
| 9. | Rebecca | Estey |
| 10. | Moses | Estey |

RICHARD ESTEY, the eighth child of Abigail (Kimball) and Isaac Estey, was baptized at Topsfield, Massachusetts, on April 7, 1706. He married RUTH FISKE at Ipswich, Massachusetts, on May 7, 1727, and raised a family of eight children, at least five of them reaching maturity. The Estey family emigrated to the Maugerville Township on the Saint John River, in what then was a part of Nova Scotia, British North America. The following genealogical study is a record of many of their descendants.

It is evident that Colonel Alexander McNutt, an enthusiastic colonizer, was the originator of the idea of establishing a Massachusetts colony on the Saint John River. In the summer of 1761 a group of adventurous men from Massachusetts reached the mouth of the Oromocto River, a tributary of the Saint John River, in what was then a portion of Nova Scotia, British North America. They made a reconnaissance along both sides of the two rivers, searching for lands where they might find a suitable site to establish a new settlement. Prior to this expedition McNutt had claimed he had been the first to respond to Governor Lawrence's proclamation of October, 1758, for settling the lands vacated by the French Acadians and induced the New Englanders to take a look at the lands.

The party ascended the Saint John River to Saint Anne's Point, a former Acadian settlement abandoned after a raiding party from Fort Frederick, a British fortress at the mouth of the Saint John River, destroyed the settlement. Soon after the New Englanders started a land survey in the area a party of Indian warriors appeared at their encampment and threatened violence if the Americans refused to leave the Indian hunting grounds. Seeing the hostile attitude of the natives, the party leader, Israel Perley, needed little persuasion to retreat a safe distance down river. The townsite was laid out in what is now known as the communities of Maugerville and Sheffield, Sunbury County, N.B.. Saint Anne's Point was later to become the City of Fredericton, Province of New Brunswick, Canada. It is reasonable to assume that Richard Estey, or at least some of his family, were among the one hundred persons residing at the Maugerville Township in 1763. A couple of packet sloops and about forty tons burden each brought the immigrants to Nova Scotia. They commenced clearing and tilling the rich lowland soil, and were pleased with the rapid growth and favourable prospect of a good crop, when suddenly an early frost ruined the harvest, and before relief arrived at the settlement the next year, the community suffered extremely from the want of food.

Another serious problem was the continuing of the settlement itself. In January, 1763, Lieutenant Governor Belcher complained to the Lords of the Board of Trades and Plantations in London, England, the unjustifiable act of sending so large a body of settlers to the Saint John River. For months the people at Maugerville remained in a state of uneasiness and fearful of being deprived of their holdings. From W. O. Raymond's, "The River St. John", it reads:-

" Six months later Charles Morris and Henry Newton, two of the Council of Nova Scotia, were sent from Halifax to notify the Acadians living near Ste. Anne's to remove to some other part of the province and also to inform the settlers from New England that their lands were reserved for disbanded officers and soldiers of the army. The message naturally created general consternation in the settlement. However, Messrs. Morris and Newton made the cause of the settlers their own. A memorial was prepared and signed by Francis Peabody and his brother officers and forwarded to JOSHUA MAUGER, the Province Agent in London, to be presented to the Lords of Trade. In a letter to Joshua Mauger on behalf of the settlers Messrs. Morris and Newton say:- " We are very apprehensive that their case must by some means or other have been misrepresented to the Lords of Trade or not clearly understood. They are chiefly American soldiers, officers or privates, who have sold their farms in New England and have transported themselves at their own expense. They have brought considerable stock with them, and their families and if it is the intention of the ministry to settle disbanded troops on the River, we are of opinion these people will be of use and service, as it cannot be expected English soldiers can bring any great stock with them. The removing of these people now they are settled will be their utter ruin. "

The above representation combined with the advocacy of Mauger saved the situation. He took the liveliest interest in their cause and largely through his efforts the Lords of Trade on the 20th December, 1763, recommended that the memorial of the disbanded officers of the Provincial forces be granted and that they be confirmed in possession of the lands on which they had settled. The matter was finally settled by the adoption of the following resolve on the part of King George III and his Council, (reading in part):-

" The Governor of Nova Scotia is ordered to cause the land upon which they are settled to be laid out in a Township consisting of 100,000 acres, 12 miles square, one side to front on the river. Also to reserve a site for a town with sufficient number of lots, with reservation for a church town-house, public quay and wharves and other public uses; the grants to be made in proportion to their ability and the number of persons in their families, but not to exceed 1,000 acres to one person. That a competent quantity of land be allotted for the maintenance of a minister and school-master and also one town lot to each of them in perpetuity. "

For months the settlers of the colony remained in a state of suspense and in much anxiety as to their fate. They were naturally greatly relieved when the order of the King - in - Council arrived, confirming them in possession of the lands they had settled. The kindness and generosity of Joshua Manger who bore the expense of their appeal and exerted himself in their behalf, was fully appreciated, and as tribute of respect and gratitude to their patron, the settlers gave to their township the name of "MAUGERVILLE". The memorial sent to London from the settlers appears below:-

" To the Right Honourable and Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Trade and Plantations :

The Memorial of Francis Peabody, John Carlton, Jacob Barker, Nicholas West, and Israel Perley, late officers in the American service and now Disbanded, in behalf of themselves and others now settled at St. John's River in Nova Scotia, Humbly Sheweth :

That your Memorialists have many of them been in service during this Present War, and as Americans are not intitled to half pay, as his Majesty's British Troops are, and therefore expected no other Recompense than Donation of Land agreeable to his Majesty's Promise to them.

That having been solicited to settle in Nova Scotia by Colonel McNutt, who appeared to us to be authorized by your Lordships (having produced to us an Instrument signed by your Lordship promising a Right of Land to each Settler equal to those already granted to Horton, Cornwallis and Falmouth) we were induced to come into the colony of Nova Scotia, and accordingly sent a Committee to view lands proper for a Settlement. That our Committee accordingly viewed several Tracts of Lands in Nova Scotia at our expense and advised us to settle upon St. John's River about seventy miles from the mouth. That the Governor and Council of Nova Scotia gave your Memorialists encouragement by telling them that the Lands about St. John's River were reserved for disbanded

Troops and that they would refer your Memorialist's Petition to your Lordships. In consequence of this, and being ourselves Soldiers, we apprehended we might with great safety prepare ourselves for settling the Lands we petitioned for, and accordingly sold our Estates in New England, and have at near a thousand pounds sterling expense transported ourselves, families and stock, and are now settled to the number of one hundred persons on St. John's River seventy miles from the mouth; and a large number of disbanded officers and soldiers in confidence of the same encouragement have now sold all their possessions in New England and are hiring vessels to transport themselves and settle among us.

We were not a little astonished when we were informed by his Majesty's Governor in Council here that we could not have a grant of the lands we have settled ourselves upon.

We therefore humbly apply to your Lordship to lay our cause before his most Gracious Majesty for whose service we have often exposed our lives in America, that he would be pleased to direct the Governor and Council here to grant us these lands we are now settled upon, as the removal therefrom would prove our utter ruin and destruction. We have been at no expense to the crown and intend to be at none, and are settled two hundred miles from any other English Settlement.

And your Memorialists as in duty bound shall ever pray.

Rec'd & Read Dec'r. 16, 1763. "

Just why the Estey family pulled up stakes in Massachusetts, selling their freehold properties and probably many of their chattels, and removing to the uncultivated, and heavily forested wild lands of Nova Scotia, on the Saint John River, has not been explained. Richard Estey and his family became involved with Captain Francis Peabody and other associates in organizing a company of would be settlers for the proposed township. After the report was made by the reconnaissance party under the leadership of Israel Perley, an advertisement was placed in "The Boston Gazette", calling for a meeting to be held at the home of Daniel Ingalls on October 6, 1762, in order to draw lots laid out by the survey party. Each signer was expected to pay twelve shillings for laying out their lot and another six shillings for the construction of a mill. The name proposed for the new settlement was, "Peabody Township", named after their leader, the beforementioned Captain Francis Peabody. As previously stated the official name given to the settlement was "The Township of Maugerville", in high respect for their advocate in England, Joshua Mauger, a former resident in Nova Scotia, who had been granted a large tract of land at Hillsborough, Albert County, N.B..

Richard Estey Senior took up residence on Lot Number Twenty Four in that section of the Maugerville Township later to be named "Sheffield". This lot was granted to Richard Estey in later years by the Crown. Here he constructed a log home hewed from the virgin forest growing on his property. He took an active part in the growth of the settlement and became one of its leading citizens. Although a church congregation had been organized and a hall built for public meetings and a place of worship, it was a few years before a minister could be found to settle in this isolated township. In "The River St. John", W. O. Raymond relates how marriages were performed prior to the entry of a minister:-

"The majority of the Maugerville people were of Puritan ancestry, and members of the Congregational Churches in Massachusetts. Scarcely had they established themselves upon their lands when they proceeded to organize themselves into a congregation. There is yet in existence a copy of the original church covenant certified as correct by Humphrey Pickard, the church clerk.

No date is attached to this church covenant but it was all probably drawn up a year or two after the arrival of the first settlers. Jonathan Burpee, whose name comes among the signers, was a deacon of the church and for many years a leader in all the church movements. He lived in that part of Sheffield just above the Academy, and was the ancestor of Hon. Isaac Burpee, Minister of Customs in the MacKenzie government, and of many others of the name.

It was not until some years after the organization of the church that there was any settled minister on the St.

John River, and those desirous of entering the holy estate of matrimony were obliged like James Simonds to proceed to Massachusetts or to follow the example of Gervas Say and Anna Russell whose marriage is described in the following remarkable document :-

Maugerville, February 1766.

" In the presence of Almighty God and this Congregation, Gervas Say and Anna Russell, inhabitants of the above said township, enter into Marriage Covenant lawfully to dwell together in the fear of God the remaining part of our lives in order to perform all ye duties necessary betwixt husband and wife as witness our hands. "

Witnesses: Daniel Palmer, Francis Peabody,
Samuel Whitney, Richard Estey,
George Hayward, David Palmer,
Edward Coye.

Gervas Say was one of the signers of the church covenant, as also were three of the witnesses, RICHARD ESTEY, Daniel Palmer and Edward Coye, and it may be assumed that the marriage was regarded as perfectly regular under the circumstances. It is not improbable that in the absence of a minister this was the ordinary mode of marriage. Gervas Say was afterwards a magistrate of the county and in that capacity himself solemnized marriages under special license from the government. "

Along with other prominent inhabitants of early Maugerville and Sheffield, Richard Estey's name is engraved on a stone cairn erected on the northerly side of the Trans - Canada Highway at Sheffield, adjacent to the present United Church and the old church cemetery where a number of the old settlers were interred.

The registry at Rowley, Massachusetts, records the birth of the children of Hannah (Hazen) and Richard Estey Junior up to their daughter, Hannah Estey, born in 1761. The next child, Jesse, was born in 1763, presumably at Sheffield, in the Maugerville Settlement.

A reservation for the establishment of a Congregational Church lot at Sheffield was also proclaimed by the British Crown in December 1763, and it is reasonable to assume that the Estey families were comfortably settled in the Mauer - ville Township long before Ruth (Fiske) and Richard Estey Senior applied for dismissal from the Congregational Church at Rowley, Massachusetts, British North America, in 1764, to apply for membership in the new church on the bank of the Saint John River at Sheffield.

INFORMATION ON THE CROWN GRANTS AT MAUGERVILLE

When referring to the Crown lots at Maugerville and Sheffield, the first division of the land is usually described as that shown in the grant made under the great seal of Nova Scotia on October 31st, 1865. While researching some old New Brunswick records in the spring of 1996 I came across a document described as a "True Copy of a Copy", and a "True Copy from the Records, examined by Charles Morris", in which it lists the names of the grantees for one hundred lots of land at the Maugerville settlement. The names are divided in two groups, "To whom granted in 1761" and "Voted to be granted in Council 1767". In the 1761 listing the names of Richard Esty, John Esty, Zebulon Esty and Richard Esty Jur. appear as grantees.

The first bands of settlers came to the Maugerville Township in 1762 and 1763. Prior to leaving Massachusetts the signers, under the leadership of Captain Francis Peabody, met at Andover, in April, 1762, probably to be shown the plans of Maugerville lots surveyed in 1761 as described above, and to agree to pay six shillings toward the erection of a mill in the new township.

Only sixty four grantees were named in the 1765 grant. By the terms of the grant it was provided that those who failed to settle on the lots for improvements before the last day of November, 1767, should forfeit all claim to the lands. Two other grants in the township were made before the arrival of the United Empire Loyalists, one in 1770 and the other in 1783.

Thomas P. Doherty has compiled genealogical material on the Fiske Family and from his research I note the following statistics :-

Deacon William Fiske (born 1642/43 - died February 5, 1728, age 85 years), married on January 15, 1662, to Sarah Kilham (born November 7, 1640 - died January 26, 1738, age 97 years)

Sarah Kilham was from Dedham, Province of Massachusetts, British North America and William Fiske was a weaver from Wenham, in the same province.

Two of their children were Joseph Fiske and William Fiske. Junior.

1. William Fiske, Junior (born January 31, 1663, at Wenham, Massachusetts , married Mary
2. Joseph Fiske (born April 14, 1672, at Wenham, Massachusetts, married Susanna Warner of Ipswich, Massachusetts.

It is confirmed that Richard Estey, Senior of Maugerville, married Ruth Fiske, and in his research the former Charles A. Towne interprets her to be the daughter of Mary and William Fiske, and the former wife of a David Kilburn (or Kilborn). Mr. Doherty could not confirm this statistic, and notes that Ruth could be the daughter of either William or Joseph Fiske.

Descendants of the Kilburn family settled at Kingsclear, York County, New Brunswick, and members of the family married into the Estey families of New Brunswick. I have found no New Brunswick statistician making reference to a Ruth Fiske - David Kilburn marriage. Could it be that David Kilburn married the daughter of William Fiske and the "Ruth Fiske" that married Richard Estey was the daughter of Joseph Fiske ?

2. ZEBULON ESTEY (born December 14th, 1742, at Rowley, Massachusetts - died October 10, 1806, in Queens County, N. B.), married on August 8th, 1765, at Newburyport, Massachusetts, to MARY "MOLLY" BROWN (baptized November 6, 1743, at Ipswich, Massachusetts, if daughter of Mary () and Nehemiah Brown of Ipswich, or born February 14th, 1743, at Newbury, Massachusetts, if daughter of Mercy (Lowell) and Francis Brown of Newbury - died August 9th, 1835, at Upper Gagetown, in Queens County, N.B., age 93 years).

2. RUTH ESTEY (born May 10, 1746, at Rowley, Massachusetts

It is doubtful Ruth Estey migrated to the Mougerville Township in Nova Scotia with the other members of the family.

No additional information has been located on this member of the family.

RICHARD ESTEY JUNIOR

2. RICHARD ESTEY JUNIOR (Richard) (baptized February 9th, 1728/29, at Rowley, Massachusetts - died 1785 c, at Sheffield, Sunbury County, N. B.), married on February 7, 1750/51, at Rowley, Massachusetts, to HANNAH HAZEN (baptized January 7, 1727/28, at Boxford, Massachusetts - died September 28, 1815, probably in York County, N. B.), daughter of Hannah (Chaplin) and Israel Hazen.

Richard Estey Junior arrived at the Saint John River's Township of Maugerville in or before 1763. He built a log home on Lot Number One Hundred allotted to him at Andover, Massachusetts, and later granted to him by the Government of Nova Scotia. When the signers of the petition, sent to the officials at Halifax, N. S., met in April, 1762, with Captain Francis Peabody at their head, it was agreed each family should pay six shillings toward the erection of a mill in the new township. Whether this agreement was confirmed to is not known, however, we do know a saw mill and a grist mill were erected on a small creek in the Maugerville Township by said Francis Peabody and Doctor Phinehas Nevers, and later sold to Richard Estey and his brother-in-law, Thomas Barker. The millsite became known as " Windmill Point ", disclosing the method used to obtain the power needed to run each mill. The Township was situated on very low interval land, and on a site unsuitable for the construction of a dam where water could be stored and used to drive a waterwheel. The millsite at " Windmill Point " was later conveyed to James Woodman.

In an article, written in the June 24, 1896, edition of the " Dispatch ", on George Atkin Hartley and his descendants, W. O. Raymond wrote,

" Mr. Hartley built his house upon his property below Eel River, his lot being numbered thirty in the old Lower Woodstock grant containing 232 acres and he afterwards secured half of the adjoining lot. He married in 1788 Abigail Estey of Sunbury County, the ceremony being performed at Burton by Wm. Hubbard Esq., Justice of the Peace. The wife of HON. JOHN DOW who moved from Mougerville to the new settlement shortly after it was founded by the King's American Regiment, was a sister of Mrs. Hartley. "

The Dow - Estey marriage found in my research disagrees with the W. O. Raymond's article and additional research is needed before documentation can be made for this entry.

3. ISRAEL ESTEY (Richard Junior; Richard) (born August 9, 1753, at Rowley, Massachusetts - died October 12, 1831, at Upper Keswick, York County, N.B.), married 1776, to SALOME BURPEE (born September 12, 1753 - died August 30, 1840, aged 87 years, at Upper Keswick, York County, N.B.) daughter of Elizabeth (Dickinson) and Isaac Burpee

The diary of David Burpee of Sheffield, a near neighbor of the early Estey family, and residing on Lot Number Thirteen, in the Mougerville Township, makes reference to his two cousins, Jonathan and SALOME BURPEE. During the summer of 1770, the cousins visited the Burpee farm at Sheffield and the diary's entry for July 10th of that year included the following comment :- " Jonathan and Salome Burpee set off for New England ". Is it a possibility that the above Salome Burpee had also come to Sheffield to see her boyfriend, Israel Estey, and later on the couple were married ?

Israel and Richard Estey were granted Lot Number Twenty-Four at Sheffield, in the Mougerville Township. A second lot of land lying in the Parish of Burton across the Saint John River from Sheffield, and distinguished as Lot Number Fourteen, was also granted to the said Israel Estey. Just why he stated in the following petition that he had not previously drawn any land cannot be explained.

" To his Excellency Thomas Carleton, Esq., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of New Brunswick, Chancellor and the Admiral of the same,

The memorial of ISRAEL ESTEY, one of his Majesty's loyal subjects, who have been an inhabitant of this province for a considerable number of years and have not drawn any land, as yet, and find Lot No. 39 of the late New York Volunteer's block drawn by John Morland, who has never made any improvements on said lot but has gone to the States, therefore your Memorialist humbly pray Your Excellency to take it into consideration and grant him said lot when escheated, and as shall ever pray. "

May 23, 1791.

Israel Estey

Lot number thirty nine in the New York Volunteers block was not escheated by the Crown and regranted, however, Israel Estey did take up residence in the Upper Keswick Valley, Parish of Douglas, York County, N.B.. He spent the remainder of his life in the Keswick Valley community where he was occupied as a farmer and lumberman.

Israel Estey's Last Will and Testament, dated February 4, 1827, made the following bequeaths :-

To SALOME, my dearly beloved wife, all my household furniture, one cow and four sheep; a good room in the house. Also I give to my well beloved son, ISAAC ESTEY, Lot Number Eighty One already deeded to him and Eighty Two in the block granted to the late Corp of the New York Volunteers, with all the improvements on said lot; also one half of my tools belonging in my shop. Likewise, I give to WILLIAM ESTEY, my well beloved son, two lots of land, number Thirty Two and Thirty Three in the block granted to the late Corp of (New) York Volunteers, all my farming utensils and one half of my shop tools, equally divided between him and my son, Isaac, before mentioned. Likewise, I give to SALOME STONE, LYDIA ALLEN, GEORGE HAINES, HANNAH BREWER and PETER HAINES, my well beloved grand children, five shillings each to be levied out of my estate. I likewise constitute, ordain and appoint George Boone of Douglas, aforesaid, Executor of this my Last Will and Testament. "

The above Last Will and Testament was signed by Israel Estey in the presence of Joshua Stone, James Whiteed and Cloe Stone. It was entered in the Probate Court at Fredericton, N.B., on November 18, 1831, and registered in the said Court on November 21, 1831.

Note :- The spelling for the surname of James Whiteed is more often shown as " Whitehead ".

RUTH ELIZABETH ESTEY

4. RUTH ELIZABETH ESTEY (Israel; Richard Junior; Richard)
 (born June 6, 1777 - died December 31, 1821), married , to PETER HAINES (born January 16, 1772 died), son of Elizabeth (Saunders) and Joseph Haines, early settlers at Keswick, York County, New Brunswick.

Godfrey Haines (or Hans; or Hains), the progenitor of the family in North America, was a native of Hamburg, Germany, born in 1675. While in the service of his country he was captured by the Turks. After his release from confinement he rejoined his comrades - in - arms and, while enroute to South America, the sailing vessel was wrecked. He was picked out of the ocean by a British Man-of-War and taken to New York, in British North America. By jumping ship and swimming ashore he escaped any confinement planned by the British. Godfrey Haines married Ann Budd, born in or about 1690, probably at Hamburg, Germany.

Sometime prior to 1709 Godfrey Haines took up residence at Mamaroneck, New York and, on April 17th, 1711, he purchased property at Rye, Westchester County, New York. Ann Haines died at Rye on February 19th, 1758. Godfrey Haines died on July 22, 1768, at the same place. They were interred in the Milton Cemetery at Rye, New York.

The issue of Ann and Godfrey Haines consisted of eight children, the second of which was Joseph Haines, born in or about 1700, at Rye New York. He married Margaret Burns, born in Northern Ireland, the daughter of Elizabeth and Alexander Burns. They raised five children, the oldest being Joseph Haines, born in or about 1739 at Rye, New York. Joseph Haines Senior died in or about 1783, probably in the Keswick Valley of New Brunswick.

Joseph Haines Junior served as a sergeant in the West - chester New York Volunteers and was one of the many United Empire Loyalists to come to New Brunswick, Canada. He was granted Lot Number Fifteen in the subdivided land reserved for the New York Volunteers, located at Burtt's Corner, in York County, N. B., and resided in this Keswick Valley settlement for the remainder of his lifetime. His occupation was farmer. He expanded his holdings by purchasing additional properties near his granted lands.

On September 11, 1867, Joseph Haines married Elizabeth Saunders. Their family consisted of four children, one of which was Peter Haines, born January 16th, 1772. As shown above Peter Haines married Ruth Elizabeth Estey, daughter of Salome (Burpee) and Israel Estey.

In the Last Will and Testament of Joseph Hains (Haines), dated March 20th, 1827, the following bequeaths were made to his sons and other descendants :-

Eldest son, PETER, five pounds and the use for life of Lot 18 on the Keswick Creek originally granted to Peter McLarren, and at his death the Lot to be divided between my grandsons, GEORGE HAINS and ISRAEL HAINS, the sons of Peter Hains. Second son, ROBERT, use for life of Lot 10, originally granted to Robert McCargar, and at his death the Lot to be divided between my grandsons, JOSEPH HAINS and WILLIAM HAINS, the sons of Robert Hains, reserving a maintenance for my granddaughter, JANE HAINS, daughter of son Robert. Should Robert's wife AMY, survive him, she to have the privilege of dwelling on Lot 10 while a widow. Third son, JOSEPH, use of residue of estate for life, and at his death, to be divided among the male issue of son Joseph, born of the body of Nancy Boone, alias Hains, wife of my son Joseph. Son Joseph Hains sole executor.

On June 13, 1853, Peter Haines Senior, Peter Haines Junior and his wife, Anna, deeded the above mentioned Lot Number 18, in the New York Volunteer Block, to Israel Haines.

Peter Haines, Senior also received a Crown Grant of land in the New York Volunteer Block at Keswick, described as Lot Number Sixteen containing 240 acres and lying on the northern bounds of the Joseph Haines Grant. On October 11th, 1821, he conveyed the said Lot Sixteen plus his cattle, sheep and hay, to Joseph Haines.

The 1851 Census Return shows that Peter Haines, Senior and his son Peter Haines, Junior and family, were residing in the same household in the Keswick Valley. Two years later, and on June 13th, 1853, the said Peter Haines, Senior, Peter Haines, Junior and his wife, Anna, conveyed by Quit Claim Deed, the Lot Number 18 formerly owned by Joseph Haines. The registry office records for York County, N.B., does not show any further land transactions to or from either Peter Haines, Senior or Junior. It is surmised Peter Haines Junior moved from the Keswick Valley to a place as yet unknown, shortly after the land conveyance in 1853.

This petition or memorial has been preserved and is now located in the New Brunswick Archives at Fredericton. It reads :-

" That your Memorialists are all natives of this Province where they are desirous of establishing themselves as Farmers -

That Your Memorialist Isaac Estey has a wife and six children, William Estey a wife and one child and Jesse Lawrence is a single man - and none of them have ever obtained any land from Government.

They therefore humbly pray that allotments may be made of five hundred acres to each of them on the north side of the River Madam Keswick about four miles above the Block granted to the York Volunteers - whereon they will without delay proceed to make the improvements required by the King's Instructions. "

The petition was "In Council" on August 4th, 1809, and stated that each memorialist " May have 300 acres each ". No grant of land was ever received by the petitioners.

Of the six children born prior to 1809 and mentioned in the above memorial, statistics have been found on only three of them. In an old book original owned by Israel Estey and later in the possession of Osborn Estey of Lisbon Falls, Maine, U. S. SUPPLEMENT

In my research of the Zebulon Estey family I find a member of the seventh generation, Annie Estey, calculated to be born in or about 1874. Was she the youngest daughter of Zebulon's son, John Estey and his wife, the former Ruth Jane Burtt, or was she the first child of John Estey's sister, "Hepsey" ? No documented evidence of her parent's names has been located.

John Estey's wife, Ruth, died on March 27th, 1875, aged 29 years. In the 1881 Census Return for the Zebulon Estey household I find the following entries :-

ESTEY	Zebulon	age 74 years
	Elizabeth	age 68 years
	John	age 40 years, "W" for widower
	Hepsey	age 36 years
	Annie	age 7 years
	Albert	age 12 years

"Hepsey" Estey was married to Burden Crouse on September 26th, 1883. The 1881 Census Return for Douglas had recorded the said Burden Crouse residing with his widowed step-mother, "Hetty" Ann (Day) Crouse.

In a check of the 1891 Census Returns for Bright, in York County, N.B., the household of Burden Crouse included :-

CROUSE	Burden	age 55 years
	Hepsey	age 46 years
	Annie	age 19 years
	Perley	age 7 years

Note :- Without documented evidence but noting that "Hepsey" Estey was unmarried in 1881 this researcher concluded from the above evidence that Annie Estey was the youngest daughter of Ruth (Burtt) and John Estey. Statistics later discovered in genealogical material prepared by Charles Towne and filed in the records of the Towne Family Association disclosed the following information :-

161-812-143	Estey John b Keswick NB Can Apr 1, 1839, married Ruth Jane Burtt
161-812-143-1	Estey Albert C. b Keswick, NB Can Oct 2, 1868, married Annie Brewer
161-812-143-11	Brewer Hattie (Estey) b Stone Ridge, NB, Jul 18, 1892
161-812-143-12	Haines Hazel A. (Estey), b Stone Ridge, NB, Sept 26, 1900
161-812-145	Crouse Hepsebeh (Estey) , b Stone Ridge, NB, Oct 12, 1844, married Burden Crouse
161-812-145-1	Crouse Annie (Crouse) b Zealand Station, NB, August 28, 1873

MOSES ESTEY

3. MOSES ESTEY (Richard Junior; Richard) (born May 12th, 1755, at Rowley, Massachusetts - died May , 1840, at Durham Bridge, Parish of St. Marys, York County, New Brunswick), married on , to SARAH HOWLAND (born 175 c, probably at North Yarmouth, in the County of York, Massachusetts, B.N.A. (now in the State of Maine, U.S.A.) - died probably at Durham Bridge on the Nashwaak River, York County, N.B.), daughter of Elizabeth (Mitchell) and Joseph Howland, early settlers in the Township of Burton on the Saint John River.

MOSES ESTEY, the third child of Hannah (Hazen) and Richard Estey Junior, was born at Rowley, Massachusetts, and came to Sheffield, in Nova Scotia, with his parents during the migration of the New England settlers to the Township of Maugerville. It was here or in Burton where he met SARAH HOWLAND. After their marriage Moses and his bride moved to vacant Crown land in the Burton Township, near her parents home, and, in June, 1783, were residing there in a log home with four children.

After the British troops withdrew from the mouth of the Saint John River in 1769, and Fort Frederick was dismantled, the Bay of Fundy was unprotected. In 1775 the Massachusetts authorities in New England assisted in the construction of armed vessels used to plunder Nova Scotia settlements. In Raymond's, "The St. John River", he wrote about this perilous period of time :-

" The next year was a decidedly uncomfortable one for the people at Portland Point. In May, two privateers entered the harbor remaining more than a week. Their boats proceeded up the river to Maugerville and informed the people that the province would soon be invaded from the westward; that privateers were thick on the coasts and would stop all manner of commerce unless the settlers joined them. They threatened, moreover, that should the Americans be put to the trouble and expense of conquering the county, all who sided with the mother country must expect to lose their property and lands.

A public meeting was held on the 14th of May at the meeting house in Maugerville and a number of highly disloyal resolutions adopted. One of the leading spirits of the meeting was the Rev. Seth Noble, who had already written to General Washington to represent the importance of obtaining control of the River St. John. Jacob Barker, Esq, was chosen chairman and a committee consisting of Jacob Barker, Israel Perley, Phineas Nevers, Daniel Palmer, Moses Pickard, Edward Coy,

Thomas Hartt, Israel Kinny, Asa Kimball, Asa Perley, Oliver Perley and Hugh Quinton, was appointed to prepare the resolutions which were subsequently adopted by the meeting. "

Privateers became so active in the Bay of Fundy it was necessary to order British war vessels around from Halifax, however, it was unsuccessful in furnishing protection for the loyal inhabitants. In 1776, an expeditionary force was formed at Machias under the leadership of Jonathan Eddy, a former resident at Cumberland who favoured the American cause. He sailed into the Bay of Fundy gathering more volunteers along the way his objective being to recruit a force large enough to successfully attack and defeat the British garrison at Fort Cumberland. At Maugerville he was successful in having one captain, one lieutenant and twenty five men join his rebel force. The attack on Fort Cumberland took place on November 28, 1776, and was a complete failure. The American troops hastily retreated to the St. John River and, after much hardship, retired to their home base at Machias.

In June, 1783, after the American Revolution was over, the Government of Nova Scotia sent representatives from Halifax to the St. John River Valley with orders to make a survey on land occupation and to determine which settlers had assisted the rebel cause. In the report to Halifax it stated that Moses Estey was one of those disloyal to the Crown during the conflict, the consequence of which forced him to remove his family from the land they occupied at Buton.

Two Memorials forwarded by Moses Estey to the New Brunswick Government give an accurate account of his life and the desperate time he had in caring for his ever increasing family between the years 1785 and 1809. The first Memorial, written to Thomas Carleton, the first Lieutenant Governor for the Province of New Brunswick, reads as follows :-

" That in May, 1785, he was turned off his land by Samuel Deney Street, Esq., who had got a grant of the same from Governor Parr, and shortly after he was disposed of his land he was taken with a fit of sickness, which brought him very low. But after a long and tedious struggle he recovered to his former health. Which he was no sooner blessed with but the Doctor who attended him in his sickness sought after what little payment he was to receive from Mr. Street for his improvements to satisfy the demands. Which took all or vary nigh all he had to receive. By which means your Memorialist is become very poor and needy and obliged to make every shift and turn that he lawfully can for the maintenance of his family (which consist of a wife and five children). Your Excellency's petitioner understands that Colonel Spry's lands is reverted to the Crown. Therefore Your Excellency's memorialist most humbly prays that Your Excellency would give him the lot. "

Moses Estey's petition was successful in his attempt to obtain a Crown Grant. In the year 1788 he received a grant of of Lot Number Seventy Two, situated on the southern bank of the St. John River at Upper Gagetown, Queens County, New Brunswick.

Moses Estey's second memorial, written to the President - in - Council, and dated at Fredericton, N.B., on April 27, 1809, informs us that his lands at Upper Gagetown had been sold and the Estey family were now residing on property bordering on the Nashwaak River in the Parish of St. Marys, York County, N.B.. Records from the Queens County Registry Office show that Moses and Sarah Estey had conveyed Lot No. 72, at Upper Gagetown, containing an area of 180 acres, more or less, to David Currey, (or Currey), on June 26, 1800. His petition, requesting a grant of land in the rear of the property purchased at Nashwaak reads as follows :-

" That your Memorialist has a family consisting of a wife and nine children, three of them sons, and a grandson who lives with him.

That he has never received any land from Government excepting a lot of sixty rods front in Gagetown which was given to him in lieu of improvements which he made in Burton on a grant which had been promised to him but were afterwards included in the grant to Mr. Street.

That finding the lot in Gagetown above mentioned too small to support his family, he sold it and purchased a lot of one hundred and fifty rods front on the Nashwaak, where he now resides. That your Memorialist's youngest son is now twenty years of age and he and the second son still reside with your Memorialist.

Your Memorialist therefor in behalf of himself and his sons and grandson pray that an allotment of one thousand five hundred acres may be made to them of the land lying in the rear of his own farm and in rear of the Glebe Lot adjoining him, on the east side of the Nashwaak, whereon your Memorialist will without delay perform the conditions required by the King's Instructions. "

The recommendation accompanying Moses Estey's memorial, signed by Arch McLean, and dated April 25th, 1809, informs us that Moses Estey had been an inhabitant at the Nashwaak River settlement for nine or ten years. This date coincides with the date of the sale of the Gagetown property. A study of the Palmer family of Grand Lake had a notation, dated July 28th, 1804, making reference to members of the Baptist Church at Waterbury, Queens County, N.B.. It reads :- " Brother John Coy and his wife, Sistet Dolly Hovey and Sister SARAH ESTEY, members of this church, hath moved from us to live and reside at Nashwaak. " It also records that Sarah, wife of Moses Estey, was baptized on September 28, 1801.

On September 30th, 1815, Samuel Estey, one of the sons of Moses Estey, petitioned the New Brunswick Government for the same parcel of land. He did not received a grant of the land, however, in later years, descendants of the Estey family were granted wood lots in the rear of the original Nashwaak River grants.

Moses Estey died in May, 1840, and his Last Will and Testament, dated June 22, 1838, was registered in the York County Probate Court on June 2, 1840 :-

" I give and bequeath to SARAH, my dearly beloved wife, all and singular my real and personal estate ---- during the lifetime of Sarah, my dearly beloved wife, and at my decease my wife, Sarah, shall have half of the increase of whatever stock may be found that I possess for the sole use and behoof, and all the aforesaid lands, tene - ments, houses, outhouses, household goods, furniture and stock, - etc - to the said Sarah my dearly beloved wife, during her lifetime. And also at the death of my wife, Sarah, I give unto my well beloved son, SAMUEL ESTEY, forty roods or rods front of the real estate on the east side of the River Nashwack, commencing at Samuel Estey's lower line, or south and on his line running forty rods. I also give and bequeath to my well beloved son, STEPHEN ESTEY, all the remaining part of the real estate of lands on the east side of the River Nashwack. I also give and bequeath to my grandson, CHARLES POND, son of my daughter, NOMAI, thirty three and one half rods or roods of my land on the west side of the River Nashwack for the use, benefit and behoof of his mother, Nomai Pond, during her lifetime. I also give to my grandson, ISRAEL HAZEN POND, son of my daughter, OLIVE POND, thirty three rods or roods of my land on the west side of the River Nashwack. I also likewise constitute, make and ordain Samuel Estey and John VanHorne executors of this my Last Will and Testament. "

The community in which the Estey family settled, in or about the year 1800, was mostly wild forested lands with fertile low land along the river given the name "Nashwaak". After the first covered bridge was constructed across the Nashwaak the area on the East side of the river became known as "Durham Bridge", and the community on the West side of Nashwaak River was named Nashwaak Village. When Crown lands to the rear of the original Nashwaak Grants were opened up for settlement, two of the surveyed settlements were named "Upper Durham" and "Lower Durham". A large number of the descendants of Moses Estey obtained grants of lands in these communities, or purchased lots from the original grantees or other land owners. Many family members still reside in the Durham Settlement.

Gathering vital statistics on the children of Sarah and Moses Estey has been a difficult task and the names of all their children has not been fully established. A listing of their issue, compiled by William Hazen in May, 1946, notes the following names :-

1. STEPHEN ESTEY married ELIZABETH POND
2. SAMUEL ESTEY
3. RICHARD ESTEY
4. MOSES ESTEY
5. AMOS ESTEY
6. SUSAN ESTEY
7. SARAH ESTEY
8. MARY ESTEY
9. MARY ESTEY
10. OLIVE ESTEY
11. HANNAH ESTEY married WILLIAM POND
12. NAOMI ESTEY married JOHN POND

Moses Estey reveals in his memorial to the New Brunswick Government, in April, 1809, that his family consisted of a wife and nine children, three of them sons and a grandson who lived with him. From his will we are informed that two of his sons were SAMUEL ESTEY and STEPHEN ESTEY. It is also confirmed by the said will that two of his daughters were OLIVE POND and NAOMI POND. Although marriage confirmation has not been established other facts verify it was Olive Estey who married William Pond.

It is an assumption that the oldest child in the Moses Estey family was a son, MOSES ESTEY JUNIOR, and it is also a supposition that he married the girl next door. Lot Number Seventy One, which borders the easterly side of the Moses Estey Grant at Upper Gagetown, was originally granted to Cornelius Hall, probably the father of ELIZABETH HALL, the wife of the said Moses Estey Junior.

The following known children of Sarah (Howland) and Moses Estey are included in this genealogical study :-

4. MOSES ESTEY JUNIOR (born April 21, 1774, in the Township of Burton, Nova Scotia - died April 30, 1837, at Whiting, State of Maine, U.S.A.), married on _____, to ELIZABETH HALL (born February 27, 1785 probably at Upper Gagetown, Queens County, N.B. - died April 5, 1866, at Whiting, State of Maine, U.S.A.) presumably the daughter of Cornelius Hall and his wife, _____ (_____) early settlers at Upper Gagetown.

NOTE

A number of the statistics for Moses Estey and his chil - dren are undocument and have been obtained from the records preserved by the Towne Family Association, partial family studies and other family records .The dates of birth, mar - riage and death for these early family members frequently differ and, at times, I have found statistics for the same individual having up to three different dates of birth, etc.

Recently I received a copy of the March, 1992, edition of the Towne Family Association newsletter in which a study of the early descendants of Ruth (Fiske) and Richard Estey were compiled from statistics sent into the genealogist for T. F. A.. Among the listed entries for the children of Sarah (Howland) and Moses Estey were :-

AMOS ESTEY born June 14, 1776 - died September 10,
1876. unmarried

The date of birth is a reasonable entry, however I do not believe a family member could live for over 100 years without leaving considerable evidence of their existance.Should the date of his decease be noted as September 10, 1776 ?

In the records of the Anglican Church at Gagetown, Queens County, N. B., the marriage registry notes the marriage of a SUSANNAH ESTEY to ISAAC CHASE on September 7, 1797. In the study of the early Estey family prepared by William Hazen a
land) and Moses Estey.

The T.F.A. entry records Susan Estey's husband as George Brown. No additional statisticss appear in this entry.

The following entry was recorded in the Marriage Registry for York County, N.B. :-

AMOS ESTEY CHASE of St. Marys, married on June 5, 1823, to CATHERINE RIDEOUT of the same place. Present at the marriage were James Ingraham and Richard P. Estey.

Note : James Ingraham married into the Estey family.

In the York County Registry Office at Fredericton, N.B. a deed, dated June 27, 1822, records a conveyance of 150 acres of land at St. Marys, York County, N.B., from Moses Estey and his wife, Sarah, to AMOS CHASE. This property joins the upper line of James French and borders on the Nashwaak River.

Although confirmation has not been established one could surmise that Amos Estey Chase was the son of Susannah (Estey) and Isaac Chase, and named after the Amos Estey formerly mentioned. The York County records show that Moses and Sarah Estey were dividing up their Nashwaak property prior to their decease. Was the 1822 transaction a share of the St Marys tract of land going to their grandson, Amos Chase ?

In June of the year 1809, MOSES ESTEY JUNIOR and five of his associates forwarded the following Memorial to the Honourable Martin Hunter requesting grants of Crown Land on which to homestead :-

MARY ESTEY

4. MARY ESTEY (Moses; Richard Junior; Richard) (born - died), married on April 16, 1815, to JOHN WEAVER (born - died), son of () and George Weaver of Ludlow, Northumberland County, N.B..

John Weaver was from the Parish of Ludlow, Northumberland County, N.B. On October 25th, 1815, he purchased the following property from Francis Weaver, described as a private soldier in the New Brunswick Fensibles Infantry :-

" All that certain piece or parcel or tract of land and premises lying and being on the North side of the S. W. Branch of the River Miramichi, known and distinguished by being called Lot Number Sixteen, containing by estimation two hundred acres, more or less. "

A Memorandum accompanying the above deed noted the following genealogical facts :-

" I do for myself, my heirs and assigns, agree with the within named Francis Weaver my brother, that our father, George Weaver, shall not be disturbed in the improvements he has made on the within premises during his natural life ", signed by John Weaver.

Lot Number Sixteen was granted to Francis Weaver in the Crown Grant to George Weaver Senior, Francis Weaver and George Weaver Junior, and having a front of 102 rods on the S. W. branch of the Miramichi River.

On August 10th, 1820, John Weaver conveyed the same lot of land to his father-in-law, Moses Estey, described as being from the Parish of St. Marys, York County, N.B.. No mention of Mary Weaver, wife of the said John Weaver, is made in the deed to Moses Estey, nor did she sign the document.

Moses Estey and his wife, Sarah, returned the property to John Weaver on October 27, 1829.

Lot Number Sixteen was mortgaged by John Weaver to Hugh Ferguson on August 30th, 1834, and on February 20th, 1849, Weaver found it necessary to deed the said lot to Hugh Ferguson as payment for the aforementioned mortgage. Again no mention of Mary Weaver is made in this conveyance. The instrument relates that John Weaver was a farmer residing in the Parish of Blissville, Northumberland County, N.B..

He later purchased land in Lot Number One Lot and Lots Numbered Twenty and Twenty One, original granted to Joseph and William Buzza, in all containing 315 acres.

Prior to the turn of the century, Moses Weaver and his second wife, Sarah, deeded one hundred acres of farm land to each of his sons, Frederick J., Robert C. and Leonard B. Weaver. On July 3, 1903, Leonard Weaver also received other portions of the homestead property in a maintenance deed from his parents and his brother, George Weaver. 4. SAMUEL ESTEY (Moses; Richard Junior; Richard) (born 1782 c - died), married on , to MARY RAFFORD (born 1787 c - died), probably the daughter of () and Lewis Rafford, early inhabitants on the Nashwaak River, in York County, N.B..

On August 4th, 1814, Moses Estey, Senior, and his wife, Sarah, conveyed a portion of the lands he had acquired from William French, an original grantee in the Daniel Lyman and Associates Grant and lying on both sides of the Nashwaak River, to his son Samuel. The description for this parcel of land was as follows :-

" All that certain piece or parcel of land and premises situate, lying and being on the River Nashwaack, in the Parish, County and Province aforesaid, and bounded on the upper side by lands now owned and occupied by David Fletcher, on the East side of the said River Nashwaack, from thence extending down the course of the said River thirty five rods, on the lower side by lands owned and occupied by the said Moses Estey aforesaid, which said piece, parcel or tract of land is to extend on the East side of the rear line of a lot of land better known and described by being part of Lot Number Ten on the East side of the River aforesaid and granted to William French in a certain Grant or Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Nova Scotia or to Daniel Lyman and others and bearing date the third day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty four. "

The David Fletcher property mentioned in the above deed description was a parcel of land sixty rods in width, and conveyed by Moses Estey, Senior to the said David Fletcher on January 10, 1814, and lying on the upper side of Moses Estey's property.

A second parcel of land was purchased by Samuel Estey from Lewis Rafford on August 7, 1821. The description for this land was as follows :-

" All that lot of land known and distinguished by Lot Number One, lying and being on the Nashwalk, in the County of York and Province of New Brunswick, being fifteen rods in front on each side of said Nashwalk, containing in the whole one hundred and fifty acres, more or less, situate lying between the land owned and occupied by Joseph Bubar and Thomas Goodspeed in the said County and Province aforesaid. He later moved to the City of Fredericton, N. B., where he was residing at the time of his decease.

The "Report of Lot Inspection" made by the Department of Lands and Mines, Fredericton, relates to the difficult time Ralph Estey experienced from the years 1939 to 1941. He had applied to Government for a Crown Grant of Lot Number Thirty Nine, in the Lower Durham Settlement, York County, N.B., and it was approved by Department officials first in 1939 and again on September 4th, 1940. His first log home was burned to the ground during the winter of 1940, and, by July, 1941, he was making fair progress in building another log cabin. It was a one room home measuring twelve feet by sixteen feet. He also had cleared one acre of land, had one half acre ploughed and three acres ready for burning. Land under cultivation totalled one half of an acre. This one half acre was dug up by hand, a remarkable feat for a handicapped man with only one hand. He also expected to have a log barn constructed before the winter set in, but was unable to enlarge his new home due to a financial problem.

In May, 1952, Ralph N. Estey and his wife, Violet, were still residing on Lot Number Thirty Nine, and Mr. T. A. MacDonald, the Director of Colonization, recommended to the Minister of Lands and Mines that a grant be issued to the said Ralph Estey.

Lewis X Estey
his mark

Lewis and Catherine Estey occupied the Bolster Road lot for close to fifty years. Financially it was a difficult life living in the community, the land being completely forested and any land cleared was of poor quality for cultivation. The family did have a few acres cleared, a portion of which was used as a garden patch where vegetables were grown for their own consumption. Lewis Estey was employed as a woodsman at Durham Settlement and on the Crown lands surrounding the community.

On April 7th, 1894, Lewis Estey and his wife, Catherine, conveyed their interest in the Crown lot to their son, John R. Estey. He paid a consideration of forty dollars for the property. The description for the land in his quitclaim deed was worded as follows :-

" All estate right, title, dower right and title to dower, interest, claim and demand, both at law and in equity or otherwise, however, and wherever in possession or expectancy, of, in, to or out of all and singular that certain piece, parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the Parish of Saint Marys, County of York, and Province of New Brunswick, and bounded as follows:-

" On the north by lands owned and occupied by Robert McElwain, on the south by land known as the Bolster lot, on the east by the road called the Bolster Road, on the west by lands owned by Michael Sweeney and the heirs of the late Charles E. Fletcher, and containing one hundred acres, more or less, and distinguished as lot number ..., in Durham Settlement. "

John R. Estey resided on the Bolster Road property and was successful in obtaining a grant from the provincial government. This Crown land was granted as Lot Letter "I" and contained one hundred acres, more or less.

After William Henry Estey moved from the Banks Road, his son, Wesley, remained on the ungranted Lot Number 23, Durham Settlement. In the spring of 1939 the Wesley Estey home burned to the ground and, in an inspection of the property made by Forest Ranger Peter McLaggan on July 7th, 1939, his report made the following comments : -

" Applicant has lived on the lot all his life; does not do much farming; house was burned this spring; expects to rebuild this summer; living in barn at present. Probably there will be no more land cleared or cultivated than at present. "

The barn above mentioned was made of logs and measured 14 feet by 16 feet. The cultivated land on the lot contained an area of eight acres and was used for growing vegetables for home use.

 married on December , 1885, to Mary Ann Estey (born August 5th, 1860 - died 1950), daughter of Eleanor (Porter) and William Estey.

On March 13th, 1889, George Chase received a grant of Lot Number Forty One, at Lower Durham, York County, N.B.. He had applied for this grant on July 10th, 1879, and the approval for the land was given by the Department of Lands and Mines, at Fredericton, N.B., on September 13th, 1882. This 100 acre parcel of land is located on the southern side of the Lower Durham Settlement road.

George Chase and his wife conveyed Lot No. 41 to Silas G. Hanson on May 10, 1892. He, in turn, deeded the property to Edward Estey on October 11, 1889. On May 26, 1904 James Edward Estey sold the 100 acre Lot No. 41 to Louis Elford.

The above full name of George Chase was located in Church records. His obituary omits the " Estey " part of his name.

On December 12, 1945 George W. Chase applied for a Crown grant of Lot Number Thirty Five at Lower Durham Settlement. His application shows he had resided on this Vacant Crown lot for thirty years, and had built a house with ell attached. He also had constructed a shed and a barn. He had 30 acres of land under cultivation, which included a large apple orchard. His livestock consisted of two horses, two cows, two pigs and six sheep.

George Wm. Chase had purchased his father's old grant of Lot No. 41 from Louis Elford on October 29, 1924. This caused some confusion in gaining the grant of Lot Number Thirty Five, the Crown erroneously believing George Chase Senior and his son, George W. Chase, were one and the same person. Government regulations make it impossible for a person to obtain more than one grant of land and, after the problem was resolved, the Crown grant was given to George Chase Junior.

Amos Luther Stewart was the son of Esther and Matthew Stewart of Lower Durham Settlement, York County, N.B..

Matthew Stewart and his family resided on a 100 acre lot of ungranted Crown land lying on the southern side of the Lower Durham Settlement road. He died on October 1st, 1867, leaving his wife to care for their four children. The following affidavit was forwarded to the Department of Lands and Mines after the government authorities informed the widowed Esther Stewart she was in arrears of her road tax, and had no right to sell logs from the land occupied by the Stewart family :-

" Esther Stewart of the Parish of Saint Marys and County of York personally appeared before me, John L. Fletcher, Justice of the Peace for the said county, and maketh oath that her husband, Matthew Stewart, performed labour upon the Calidonia Road leading to his own place in the fall of 1866 sufficient to pay all arrears upon the land. That the Commissioner, Patrick Campbell Esq., was taken ill and died before he could obtain the certificate. That on the first day of October last the said husband died leaving her in destitute circumstances with four young children and believing she had a perfect right to dispose of the logs on the property. She accordingly sold them to William Estey to enable her to maintain her family, who paid her for the same. That it was well known in the neighborhood that her husband performed the labour. "

Sworn before me at Saint Marys this 20th day of April, A.D., 1868.

John L. Fletcher, J.P.

STEPHEN ESTEY

4. STEPHEN ESTEY (Moses; Richard Junior; Richard) (born June 12, 1786, probably at the Burton Township on the Saint John River - died April 12, 1858, at Durham Bridge, on the east side of the Nashwaak River, Parish of Saint Marys, York County, N.B.), married on November 20th, 1814, to ELIZABETH POND (born July 14, 1788 - died January 16, 187), daughter of Mary Eva (Cain or Kaine) and John Pond.

John Pond, the father of Elizabeth (Pond) Estey, was a "Loyalist" who came to the Nashwaak River from Long Island, New York. He had been a private in the Second Battalion of the New Jersey Volunteers. In New Brunswick he was granted part of Lot Number Forty One, First Class, Letter " E ", located at Penniac, Parish of Saint Marys, in York County, N.B.. On the Nashwaak River he occupied himself in farming and lumbering.

Stephen Estey resided on the Nashwaak River in the Durham Settlement for most of his lifetime. On April 23, 1838, the following petition for land was forwarded by him to the Crown Land Office at Fredericton :-

" That your Petitioner is a British subject, born in the Province of New Brunswick, and does not own any land; that he wishes to obtain by purchase a tract of land for immediate settlement, containing one hundred acres, and situate as follows; On the east side of the River Nashwaak in rear of the granted land commencing twenty chains below a beech tree marked "B-5" in Deputy McLean's Survey and to extend twenty chains down along said rear and back.

The said land is at present in a wilderness state; no improvements having been made thereon; and he requests that he may be allowed to purchase it at three shillings per acre, payable by installments and if so allowed, he is prepared to, and will settle himself upon, and improve the same forthwith, and conform in all respects with the regulations for the granting of land.

And as in duty bound will ever pray.

Stephen Estey "

No land was granted, however Stephen Estey did reside on the Crown lot at the rear of the Lyman Grant for about 15 years. The property was then occupied by his son, William.

On December 5, 1856, Stephen Estey and his wife, Elizabeth, conveyed that portion of the lands inherited from his father bordering on the Nashwaak River to his son, Stephen Estey Junior.

On September 17, 1862, Benjamin Hanson, another old resident on the Nashwaak River, made this interesting comment on the Vacant Crown Lot occupied by Stephen Estey :-

" About twenty three or twenty four years ago, Stephen Estey, father of William Estey, who has lately occupied a lot of land in the Durham Settlement in the rear or back of his, Stephen Estey's farm on the Nashwaak River, agreed to clear four acres of land for me at two Pounds an acre, and out of that sum he wished me to pay him three Pounds fifteen shillings, say $ 15, which the said Stephen Estey said he wanted to pay into the Crown Land Office as the first installment on one hundred acres of land for his son, William. Some two or three years afterwards the said Stephen Estey was making shingles for me, by the day, and said he must have leave to go and build a chimney for William which was on the same land that has been occupied by the said William Estey say about sixteen or eighteen years from this date. "

In the 1851 Census the residence of Stephen Estey was shown as a log home in the Parish of Saint Marys. After his decease his wife, Elizabeth, resided with her son, Stephen Estey Jr., and was still living there during the 1871 Census enumeration.

5. William Estey (born 1812 c - died August 14, 1881 c), married on August 22nd, 1839, to Eleanor Porter (born August 20, 1818 - died), daughter of

The ungranted Crown lot applied for by Stephen Estey and later occupied by his son, William, became a point of controversy in 1862 due to a Writ of Fieri Facias directed against the goods and chattels of the said William Estey, dated and issued on January 18th, 1861. In November of the same year, William Alexander McLean, the Sheriff for York County, sold the land at public auction to James Hale, the plaintiff in the Supreme Court proceedings. Since the Estey lot was ungranted Crown land, the perturbed Elizabeth Estey forwarded a petition to Lieutenant Governor Arthur Gordon :

" That your Petitioner is the widow of the late Stephen Estey of Nashwaak, Saint Mary. That she is in indigent circumstances having no property whatever for her support. That some years since, her late husband applied and improved upon for fifteen years. Since that time to the present, their son, William Estey, has occupied the said lot, without, however, having received any title or relinquishment of the same from his father. That recently James Hales had obtained a Judgement against William Estey for some personal debt owed him by Wm. Estey, and under the said Judgment the said lot was sold by the Sheriff. Your petitioner would further state that her late husband, some years prior to his death, paid 3 . 15 pounds in money as an installment on the said lot, and that, in 1859, another installment was paid in labor on roads to the credit of the Estate of the said Stephen Estey. Under those circumstances your Petitioner respectfully pray that she may be allowed to retain the said lot, and to pay the balance due on the same by installments under the Labor Act or in money. And your petitioner in duty bound will ever pray.

James Hale had expected that William Estey would have put in a defense, and have the matter of right tried before the Supreme Court at Fredericton, however, no trial was held and Estey remained on the land. A petition was forwarded to the Governor by James Hale in which he mentioned that the Attorney General's opinion had been submitted to his Excellency the Lieutenant Governor-in-Council, and the following order was made, viz :-

" Report of the Attorney General approved - upon payment of the balance now due the Crown, you will be entitled to a Grant, pursuant to the above order. "

Although Mr. Hale had paid the balance of $ 45.00 due to the Crown on April 5, 1862, no grant was given and the payment was returned to him. On September 24th, 1862, another petition was received by the Honorable Arthur Hamilton Gordon from the heirs of Stephen Estey requesting a Crown Grant of the family homesite, now distinguished as Lot Letter "M", in Block Number 5. It also documents the decease of the senior Stephen Estey as April ,1858, and, besides his widow, Elizabeth, he was survived by the following children :-

1. WILLIAM ESTEY, his eldest son
2. ABEL ESTEY
3. JAMES ESTEY
4. STEPHEN ESTEY
5. SARAH (Estey), wife of JAMES ROGERS
6. CHARITY (Estey), wife of DOMINICUS HANSON
7. ELIZABETH (Estey), wife of JOHN ESTEY

Prior to his marriage in 1839 William Estey had resided at Ludow, in Northumberland County, N.B., moving back to Durham Settlement and, in 1846 residing in a log cabin on the lot of land applied for by his father.

In or about the year 1857 he had the lot lying east of the James Johnston grant at Lower Durham monumented at its corners by Surveyor Patrick Campbell, with the intent of obtaining a Crown grant of the property, under the Provincial Labor Act. He was unsuccessful in this endeavor.

No further action was taken on Lot Letter " M ", Block 5, Durham Settlement, until October 20, 1916, when Stephen Estey the son of James Estey, and his wife, Sarah, conveyed the lot to his son, Chesley Estey. He settled on the property, and on January 20, 1928, received a Crown Grant of the 100 acre lot, under the Official Number 29270.

JACOB ESTEY

4. JACOB ESTEY (Richard; Richard Jr.; Richard Sr.) (born 1780 c, probably in the Township of Maugerville, Nova Scotia - died sometime between 1851 and 1861, probably in the Parish of Burton, Sunbury County, N. B.), married on December 24th, 1803, to THEODOCIA " DOCY " BALL (born 1786 c - died sometime between 1871 and 1881, probably at Upper Gagetown, Queens County, N. B.), daughter of

At the time of marriage Jacob Estey was a resident of Maugerville. Along with numerous other inhabitants of the low land in the Maugerville and Sheffield communities he moved to the higher ground in the Keswick River Valley, a few miles farther up the Saint John River, in York County, N.B.. He purchased a portion of Lot Number Seven, in the grant to the Corp of Guides and Pioneers, former United Empire Loyalist soldiers from the New England Colonies. On September 17, 1807, Mr. Estey conveyed this one hundred acre parcel of land to Samuel Peabody.

Jacob Estey moved his family back to Sunbury County and took up residence in the Parish of Burton. In an old book titled, " Appointment of Road Work ", it is recorded that Jacob Estey was now living in the Sunbury County. The 1851 Census Returns show he and his wife and two of their children were inhabitants of the Parish of Burton where he was occupied in farming. His age in the census was recorded as 71 years.

Just when Jacob Estey moved to Burton, Sunbury County, New Brunswick, is difficult to ascertain. His name appears in a listing of inhabitants of Queensborough, York County, N.B., prepared by Sherrif George Berton and entered in his " Roll Book " for the year 1816. Estey was described only as a yeoman.

Establishing documented proof for the relationship of Jacob Estey to Ruth (Kirby) and Richard Estey has not been located during all of my extensive research. Puzzling unanswered statistics were found in the Methodist Church Baptism Registry :-

DAVID	ESTEY

Note : No dates were given

Additional information on Margaret and David Estey has not been found. Were they Jacob's sister and brother, and were all three the children of Ruth and Richard Estey ???

The Towne Family Association's records are compiled from lineages sent in from members of the association. In these records Jacob Estey is entered as the son of Richard Estey of New Brunswick, Canada, and formerly from Rowley, Massachusetts. Although undocumented the Towne Family Association's records are a reasonable reliable source of information.

5. Elizabeth Estey (born _____ 1805 c - died May 15, 1882, age 77 years, in Sunbury County, N.B.), married on October 10th, 1829, to William Henry Blizzard (born _____ - died _____), son of _____

The decease of Elizabeth (Estey) Blizzard appears in the May 16th, 1882, edition of the "Capital" news - paper in which it notes she was the eldest daughter of Jacob Estey. Her church marriage record shows she was a resident of Burton at the time, and the Towne Family Association records describe her as the daughter of Jacob Estey.

5. " Hetty " or " Letty " Estey (born _____ - died _____), married on February 14, 1828, to Daniel Hersey (born _____ - died _____), son of _____

The marriage record for "Hetty" Estey describes her as a resident of Burton, and Daniel Hersey was from the Gagetown area. Although no documentation has been located, she is included as a daughter of Theodocia and Jacob Estey from her recorded place of residence and her date of marriage. Due to the poor penmanship of the church registrar her first name is not completely legible. In all of my research I have found no family historian or genealogist making reference to this marriage in the Estey lineages perused.

" That your Honors Memorialist has never received any lands from Government, (the land he possesses being held by purchase), and being desirous of enlarging his landed property for the sake of his rising family now humbly prays that a Grant of the lot of land lying between Mr. John Dowe and the Glebe Lot in the Parish of Woodstock, may pass in his favour, he being fully capable of complying with the Royal instructions respecting the settlement of land.

And Memorialist as in duty bound will ever pray.

Fredericton, 13th June, 1814. Abraham Estey "

" That Your Excellency's Memorialist was born in this Province and is a British subject. That he now resides in the Parish of Woodstock, and has been an inhabitant of said Parish for nearly five years past, and of the County of York since the hour of his birth; that he is twenty eight years of age and is a married man, and never had any Grant of land from the Crown.

That he owns by purchase, a tract of land formerly granted to John Dowe, in Woodstock, aforesaid, containing 500 acres with 120 rods front. And most humbly prays that he may have 300 acres of vacant land situate immediately in the rear of the land so purchased by him and of the same extent in width, which land is still in its natural state. Your Excellency's memorialist is of ability and it is his intention forthwith to cultivate and improve the land applied for, according to the Royal instructions, should he be so fortunate as to succeed in this application and has not directly or indirectly

" The Petition of the under signed Inhabitants of the Parish of Woodstock, in the County of York, and others holding lands in the rear of the said Parish called Howard Settlement -

Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioners desirous of improving lands lately granted by Government in the rear of the lower part of Woodstock called Howard Settlement finds great difficulty in travelling to and from their lands. Having had a road laid our agreeable to law by the Commissioners of the said Parish and performed the Statute of Labour required by law, prays your Honors will be pleased to take into consideration the great difficulty attending the formation of new settlements and roads, and that your Honors will be pleased to grant such a sum of money as you may think proper for the opening and improving the said road the distance being upwards of four miles from the settlers on the River St. John, and your petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray.

I do hereby certify that the said road has been laid out and recorded agreeable to law in such case and provided that Statute Labour has been performed as appears by the Surveyor's Return.

On November 21, 1863, it was reported that the steamer, " Sunbury ", left Indiantown, (Saint John), N.B., about four o'clock and sailed up the Saint John River with a large number of passengers and heavy freight on board, and the schooner " Ina " in tow. On arriving at Oak Point about eight o'clock, she stopped opposite Flewelling's Landing to allow some passengers to get into a small boat that came alongside. After the boat left her the order was given to " go ahead " and while in the act of starting one of the boilers exploded and the boat sank immediately. The greater number of those on deck were not killed by the explosion or blown into the water and managed to reach the schooner, but those who were below deck went down with the steamer. The following account of the tragedy was written in the newspaper " Headquarters " :-

" Among those who were thrown into the water was John Livingston, the steward of the boat, who, it is said, might have escaped with his death if he had not disinterestedly refused the aid offered him in favor of a woman whom he thought more in need of it than himself. The force of the explosion tore away the side of the boat and one of the paddle boxes with it; knocked a hole in the bottom which let in the water; blew barrels of flour and heavy articles of freight from the lower deck through the saloon; shattered and loosened all the raised deck and lifted the wheel - house where ALFRED ESTEY, one of the crew, was steering, and the Captain's room in which were Mrs. George Atherton Jr. and NELSON CLIFF, broke to pieces the sofa on which they were sitting and it would seem precipitated them in the bow of the boat which was fast sinking under water. ESTEY was killed, the others were miraculously preserved. One or two were rescued through the windows of the cabin before the boat sank, but most unhappily two young girls, Miss Atherton and Miss Wilson were overwhelmed by the water in the Ladies Cabin and drowned; in the forward cabin three of the passengers, Mrs. Summers of Fredericton, York County, George E. McLaughlan, Sheffield, Sunbury County, Jackson Burpee, do., and four of the crew, John Tibbitts, Assistant Engineer, W. A. French, deck hand, J. Garvie, fireman, and James Livingston, cook met a similar fate. "

MARY WASSON

4. MARY WASSON (Hannah Estey; Richard, Junior; Richard) (born 1891 c, at Sheffield, Sunbury County, N.B. - died in or about 1871), married on March 16th, 1813, to PETER DAY, JUNIOR (born January 7th, 1791, at Sheffield, Sunbury County, N.B.), son of Catherine (Allen) and Peter Day, a native of New Jersey, British North America.

Peter Day, Senior was born in Weehawken, New Jersey. He was married to Catherine Allen, of New York, whose father dealt in real estate. He was a Methodist and she an Episcopalian. They lived in New Jersey until three girls were born to them, one given the name Sarah.

At the close of the Revolutioary War with the British, the Day family took their family and as much of their furniture as possible and sailed to Nova Scotia, taking up residence in the Shelburne community. The following winter was exceedingly severe and, being unprepared for such inclemency, all their infants died before spring arrived. Being dicouraged with Nova Scotia they crossed the Bay of Fundy to New Brunswick, moved up the Saint John River to Swan Creek, in Sunbury County, and purchased a farm. They resided at Swan Creek where their four sons were born. They were :-

ROBERT BARTLETT WASSON

4. ROBERT BARTLETT WASSON (Hannah Estey; Richard, Jr.; Richard) (born July 21st, 1795, at Sheffield, Sunbury County, N. B. - died March 6th, 1871, in the Parish of Blissfield, County of Northumberland, N. B.), married on July 21, 1822, to ELIZA - BETH ANN RICHARDSON (born 1810 c - died), daughter of Mary Ann (Marple) and Stephen Richardson.

Robert B. Wasson was granted Lot Letter "A" at Weaver Sid - ing, in the Parish of Blissfield, Northumberland County, New Brunswick. On the cadastral plans it also shows a grant of Lot Number 123, to R. Wasson. The family home was in Blissfield, where R. B. Wasson lived for the remainder of his lifetime and where many of his descendants still reside.

5. George R. Wasson (born November 6, 1823, at Blissfield, in Northumberland County, N.B. - died 1910, at Marshfield, Oregon, U.S.A.), married on , to

In the " Six Months Return of the number of Scholars taught by James DeBourke, District No. 4, in the Parish of Blissfield, ending June 10th, 1840 " eight of the students of the thirty four children in the school were of the name, Wasson. At the top of the list was George Wasson, sixteen years of age. This was the first appearance of his name in my reseach for the Wasson family of Northumberland County. No record was found for the 1841 return, and his name does not appear in the listing for May 27th, 1842.

After much additional research I found that George R. Wasson had left the community of Blissfield on the Mirami - chi River, and travelled to the far west. Although I have yet to record his family , I have located a portion of his obituary written in "The Oregon Daily Journal", a newspaper from the City of Portland, Oregon, showing his adventurous and most prosperous life in that State. His life story was from Marshland, Oregon, and dated February 7, 1910 :-

George R. Wasson whose funeral has just been held was one of the oldest pioneers in Coos County. He came to Coos Bay when there were only seventeen white men in the county and built the first sawmill in the county. He was a veteran of the Indian Wars, a gold miner and was, at one time , the richest man in Coos County.

Portions of the obituary was not legible due to the poor quality of the microfilm. His name was not entered in the Blissfield 1851 Census Return , and from what the obituary shows he was on his way to the Pacific coast. Continuing on with the newspaper article :-

..... born at Blissfield, New Brunswick, November 6, 1823 and remained in that part of the State until the winter of 1852-53 when, with three others, Mr. Wasson started overland for Coos Bay.

The party reached the headwaters of the middle branch of the Coquille River , built a raft and made their way down the river until it came to the juncture of the north fork. Up that stream the party travelled with the tide to the head of navigation and then transferred to Catching Inlet and floated down to Coos Bay. It was probably the first party of white men to navigate these rivers.

The party was met at Coos Bay by Mart Davis who still lives at Marshfield. Mr. Davis was in a canoe and led the newcomers to North Bend , where the only white men in the locality , numbering seventeen , were living. The white population were made up of those who had landed here on the wreck of the transport, " Captain Lincoln ", a few of who had come overland from Josephine County, and the late Patrick Flannagan and his associates, who had been ship - wrecked lower down on the coast and had come to Coos Bay on foot.

Mr. Wasson took up a homestead on South Slough and always afterwards made his home in that locality. He engaged in the Indian Wars and was in the Battle Rock fight. His greatest success was on gold mining at the old town of Randolph near where Bandon is now located. Randolph was then a city of one thousand population but is now a deserted waste. Mr. Wasson cleaned up about 10,000 dollars working the rich gold bearing sand.

Mr. Wasson started logging on South Slough and was the first man in the county to undertake removing the big trees from the vast timber area. He built logging roads and railroads which penetrated the wilderness that surrounded Coos Bay. With George Winchester he erected the first sawmill in the county in 1857. For many years, as long as he was active enough to work, he followed the logging business, making his home on his South Slough ranch.

Mr. Wasson introduced many innovations in the county. He educated a number of young persons, besides his own children, and was liberal with his money in anything that would help the community in the openhanded way of the pioneer in the early days.

In the obituary for George Wasson it shows he was married and had a family. No names are given however, it does show he had three sons and more than one daughter. It also reveals he has two sisters living in New Brunswick in 1910 and brothers residing in Minneapolis.

5. Robert B. Wasson (born _____ 1825 c, at Blissfield, Northumberland County, N.B. -

Like George, his older brother, Robert B. Wasson was shown as a student attending the Blissfield schoolhouse in 1840. He also does not appear as a scholar in the school's return for the year 1842, or the Northumberland County Census Returns for 1851. A clipping from a former New Brunswick newspaper, dated March 20, 1878, reveals had left the Blissfield community and was residing in the United States of America. The newspaper article reads :-

" R. B. Wasson, who left home in Blissfield nearly thirty years ago, arrived there Saturday last to visit friends. His home is in Gainesville, Florida, where he has a general business. " cunning peculiar to persons in her mental condition, she carried some to her bedroom without the knowledge

ABIGAIL ESTEY

3. ABIGAIL ESTEY (Richard Junior; Richard) (born August 26, 1767, at Sheffield, in the Mougerville Township, then a part of Nova Scotia - died April 7, 1844, in the Parish of Canterbury, (formerly Dumfries), York County, N.B.), married on April 21, 1788, at Burton, Sunbury County, New Brunswick, to GEORGE ADKIN HARTLEY (born 1759, near Newcastle, England - died September 2, 1812, in what is now known as Temple, in the Parish of Canterbury, York County, N.B.), son of George A. Hartley came to America at a young age from England. He was a soldier in the Guards Regiment and afterwards joined the King's American Regiment which was formed in the year 1777, mainly by the efforts of Governor Tyron of New York and his son-in-law, Colonel Edmund Fanning. The muster rolls for the regiment show that Hartley served under various captains throughout the American Revolution and rose to the rank of sergeant.

Many of the disbanded officers and other ranks that had served in the King's forces during the war were granted land in the Province of New Brunswick, Canada. About three thousand men came to the Saint John River watershed in September 1783. The land fronting on the Saint John River and lying between the Shogomoc and Eel Rivers was granted to former members of the King's American Regiment, their widows or sons. Captain Isaac Atwood, a cavalry company commander in the regiment, was a leading figure in the formation of the settlement and the first resident of the Parish of Woodstock, in which the community was then located, to be elected to the New Brunswick House of Assembly

In the grant to Tristram Hillman and forty two others, dated August 17, 1787, Sergeant George Hartley was granted Lot Number Thirty, containing an area of two hundred and thirty two (232) acres. Many of the settlers were making improvements to their lots prior to receiving their Crown Grants and George Hartley was one of the first former soldiers to make improvements to his lot by clearing land for cultivation, constructing a home and outbuildings and making preparations for the place where he will bring his bride, the former Abigail Estey, and where his large family will be reared.

A part of the life of George Hartley is found in the petitions he forwarded to Governor Thomas Carleton, the first Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick :-

The Memorial of George Hartley and Solomon Teed, Sergeants in the Kings late American Regiment:-

" Most humbly sheweth, that your Memorialists are among the first settlers up the River on Block No. 4, where they have made every improvement in their powers. That since the Block has been resurveyed and altering the front has left a strip of land lying between them of twenty yards wide, which being too small for one to settle on will probably remain a nuisance for a number of years. That, as your Memorialists have cleared their fronts, it intercepts their view, and is a very good prejudice, not only in fencing and improving, but in shading what they had already cleared.

Your Memorialists therefore pray for this strip of land, lying between Lots Nos. 28 and 30, to be equally divided betwixt them, and your Memorialists as in duty bound shall ever pray. "

Woodstock, signed: George Hartley
20 April 1787. Solomon Teed

Isaac Atwood applied his influence in the above request by including the following statement :-

" Memorialists are very deserving characters and good settlers; their improvements are among the first so far up the River, and what their petition sets forth is an indubitable fact; therefore it is no impropriety in the request most sincerely join them in their Memorial. "

signed : I. Atwood

The request was complied with in Council on August 7, 1787

A second land petition from George Hartley to Governor Thomas Carleton, dated October 12, 1802, points out :-

" That he was formerly a soldier in the Guards and afterwards in the King's American Regiment, and was severely wounded in His Majesty's service. That he is settled at Woodstock on Lot No. 30 of the regimental block; that he has resided there for 17 years being amongst the first of the settlers in that district. That he has now a large family and that his lot is stoney and not capable for cultivation to such an extent as is necessary for their support. That there are two lots of rejected lands on the same block commencing at the head of the Meductic Falls and coming down towards the foot thereof, near five miles above the Pouquiok (Pokiok), which might be improved by him to advantage and which is entirely uncultivated.

Your Memorialist humbly prays permission to take possession of the said lots immediately in order that he may proceed in the cultivation of the same, and that he may be confirmed in his title thereto whenever your Excellency may think proper. "

The Survey General, George Sproule, made the following note on the above petition :-

" The situation is vacant, November 20, 1802. "

The two additional lots granted to George Hartley were known and described as Lot Number Twelve in the Third Division containing 230 acres, and located opposite the Meductic Rapids on the Saint John River, and below the mouth of the Shogomoc River; also the previously mentioned Upper Half of Lot Number Twenty Nine, in the First Division, and bordering on his first granted Lot No. 30 in the First Division.

When the Reverend John Beardsley made his first missionary trip up the Saint John River in 1789 he called at the American Regiment's settlement where, on July 30th, he baptized Abigail Hartley and her eldest son, James. Abigail and George Hartley had a total of eleven children of which five were males.

George Hartley lived only a few years after receiving the last two grants of land.. He died on September 2, 1812, at his residence on Lot Number Thirty in the First Division.

B., a short distance below the mouth of Eel River.

James Hartley was granted two lots of land at Shogomoc, New Brunswick, then a part of the Parish of Dumfries, in the County of York. The first lot was known as Lot Number Eleven, containing 190 acres, and bordering on Lot Number Twelve owned by his father. The second grant of land was described as Lot Number Fourteen, containing 270 acres, a woodlot situated at the rear of said Lot Number Twelve. On May 13th, 1834, James Hartley was deeded Lot Number Twelve by the remaining heirs-at-law and next-of-kin of George Hartley.

The James Hartley family resided on his property at Shogomoc on the southerly bank of the Saint John River. A high hill on his lands became known as "Hartley Hill". He was active in the militia and generally known as " Captain Hartley ". Interred at the Hermitage Cemetery, Fredericton.

Anna L. Hartley was a schoolteacher at Shogomoc. In a journal written by John R. Hull it notes an interesting account of his early life at Shogomoc, and the beginning of his school days :-

" Our next move was to Shogomoc. There was quite a large mill there for the time and the power was by an overshot water wheel, and they run the lumber to the river in the sluice and rafted it from there to Fredericton. About this time I started to school I was five years old the 5th of July.

My younger brother, Mark, started with me but he was just a little too young. I remember the teacher starting to correct him for something and he grabbed her by the skirt and told her, ' Blast the hide of you, I will #!#+/# punch you. ' She was a very nice teacher and I heard her tell mother that Mark was just a little too young, and they had to keep him at home.

The teacher's name was Annie Hartley and her dad, Old Squire Hartley, used to drive her to school every morning. She married and for many years lived at Temperance Vale. I have often thought of her and would like to see her but she would be over a hundred years old if she was living now. "

He also possessed a part of Lot Number Fourteen and two other one hundred acre lots that were granted to him by the Crown and lying at the rear of the second tier of lots at Lower Canterbury. At Shogomoc the Hartleys were farmers, however, when the children reached maturity they moved to greener pastures in the U. S. A.. Edward B. W. Other members of the family had moved to Brainerd prior to 1872. She probably lived with one of her children. " The late James R. Hartley, Civil Engineer, and at the time of his death M.P.P. for Carleton County, was the youngest son of James Hartley. He was one of the most talented and energetic men the county has produced and but for his untimely death destined to make his mark in the legislature. So great was his popularity that in his election he secured a majority at every single polling place throughout the county. Many of the settlements of Carleton County such as Knowlesville and Glassville were laid out by James R. Hartley and I have been told that Hartland was named after him. He was the civil engineer who first demonstrated the practicability of a line of railway from Debec to Woodstock and had the municipality of Carleton County followed his advice in taking a large share of stock in the enterprise they might have retained possession of the Woodstock Branch. The investment would have paid off and the county would have been able to control the freight charges in a large measure today. "

SARAH HARTLEY

4. SARAH "SALLY" HARTLEY (Abigail; Richard Junior; Richard) (born June 14, 1801 - died November 15, 1875), married on August 31, 1824, to OLIVER MILLER (born January 16th, 1799 - died April 29, 1886), son of Deborah (Newcomb) and Isaac Miller.

In the year 1821 Oliver Miller was one of the many young inhabitants in New Brunswick requesting grants of Crown Land being surveyed by the Government and offered to deserving settlers. In his petition, dated December 10th, 1821, Oliver Miller stated that he was a British subject, a native of New Brunswick, twenty two years of age, single and never had received land from the Crown. He requested a grant of Lots Numbered 140 and 146 in the Parish of Prince William, York County, containing about 100 acres each. A "Not Recommended" notation on his petition was dated January 19, 1822.

A second petition for land was forwarded to Government on June 25, 1830, requesting the purchase of land at Howard Settlement, then in the Parish of Woodstock, upon which no improvements had been made, except about four acres cleared by the petitioner. A "Ticket of Possession" was issued to Oliver Miller and a fee of two pounds paid. The price of the two lots he received was set at twenty pounds and a down payment of five pounds made, with the stipulation that five pounds be made annually plus interest. Total payment was to be made within three years. The two hundred acre lot of land at Howard Settlement was granted to Oliver Miller on May 27, 1835.

On March 6th, 1838, Oliver Miller purchased Lot Number One at Howard Settlement from Michael Dorothy and wife, lying adjacent to the Oliver Miller grant and originally granted to the said Michael Dorothy. A second deed for the same 90 acres was received from Michael Dorothy on May 1st, 1848. To further expand his holdings, Oliver Miller petitioned the Lieutenant Governor for a thirty acre lot lying in the rear of the Dorothy grant. This land was purchased from the Crown by auction in June, 1848, for the sum of three pounds per acre.

In a letter giving a history of the Miller family, and dated August, 1908, John Allan Miller, a son of Harriett (Parks) and Isaac Miller, wrote to his nephew, Herbert Miller of Admire, Kansas, U.S.A. :-

" Oliver lived near Canterbury, three miles from our home where your father and I were raised. You can find it on any map; look about 20 miles southeast of Woodstock. The distance from our home was so great that I doubt if I ever was in his house, to excuse a half dozen times, during all the years of my childhood and youth. He, Oliver, was a model man, very few as good ever lived. He was robust man mentally and physically, and he needed it all; no other man born of woman ever could have endured what he did and never complain; always good and cheerful, endured all of his wife's idiosyncrasies. This name was legion, Sally Miller, Sally Miller - the name revives a thousand memories. She was not bad, that is wicked. No, she had some good qualities. Perhaps I might say several, even many good qualities. What good sausage she did make, none ever half as good. The taste still lingers with me after all these years and her raspberry jam was fit for angels and Johnny always was sure of a generous slice of well-buttered white bread thickly spread with her delicious jam. But her ability to be troublesome, trying, tormenting and all that to poor, patient, long suffering Oliver. They had five children :- Jemima, Keziah, Karonpapieche (?), Christina and George Isaac. Ain't those names the limit ?

I will give you one example of Sally's eccentricities. For some small matter of differences with Oliver she, while in fair health, lay in bed seven years and had to be waited on the same as a helpless invalid. After that she labored two years grading a road to the spring. " five dollar bill. In his younger days he was a business man - had a sawmill, grist mill, and supply store at the mouth of Eel River, and I have heard many stories of his prowess and scheming. He was a road supervisor as you spoke of, also a farmer, and had much timber lands in Canterbury. I think if you look up the records of deeds you would get an idea of the extent of the real estate from 1840 - 1890 as it was before my time. I also remember when he gave the $1000 to Lady Tilly for the hospital. She came back and asked for another but he gave another $300 to complete the "Asa Dow Wing" to the Victoria (Public) Hospital, (at Fredericton). I also know that the Baptist Church still stands on the land of Asa Dow. He, nor his successors, would never deed it over. He supported it liberally. When he went to church he always took a quarter and a penny in his pocket. If he liked the sermon he gave the quarter; if not, he put in the cent. I did not know of him giving a scholarship to U. N. B., but in the later years I was away much of the time and he became feeble and wanted to place his money before he died and enjoy the giving of it.

He died and was buried with some relatives who lived near the cemetery. He liked to see young people prosper and he was smart. He paid enough for all his keep and had enough to settle his affairs, so left no will as everything was all arranged. I never knew of him drinking or using tobacco. As this is all I think you can find anywhere, I hope you will have enough to make a good biography. If you want stories and anecdotes, I think that my older brother could furnish them. We are long lived race and he lived not so long as some of his people. I hope that this is satisfactory and am pleased to help out in this way.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. H. M. Edwards

SARAH ESTEY

2. SARAH ESTEY (Richard) (born October 12, 1736, at Row - ley, Massachusetts - died , probably at Sheffield, New Brunswick), married on September 12, 1761 to THOMAS BARKER (born July 20, 1737, in Massachusetts - died March 1, 1782, probably at Sheffield, N.B.), son of Mary (Spofford) and Jacob Barker.

James Barker, the progenitor of the family in America, was born at Stragewell, Low Suffolk County, England. He probably was among the persecuted Puritans who came to Rowley, Massachusetts, landing there with his wife, Grace, in the year 1637.

Nathaniel Barker, the fourth child of Grace and James Barker, was born on August 15, 1664, and died on November 10, 1722. Jacob Barker, the third child of Mary and Nathaniel Barker, was born on January 14th, 1675, and died on January 27, 1726. In 1701, he married Margaret Tenney and reared eleven children. Two of these eleven children emigrated from Massachusetts to the " Township of Maugerville " on the Saint John River in Nova Scotia. They were JACOB BARKER, the sixth child, born March 1, 1713, and his brother, JOSEPH BARKER, the eighth child, born April 11th, 1717. Jacob Barker had married Mary Spofford in 1736, and, in or about 1763, emigrated to Maugerville, where he was granted Lot Number Sixteen in the said township. Joseph married Sarah Stickney Palmer and settled at Maugerville at the same time.

Thomas Barker emigrated to the Township of Maugerville, on the Saint John River, in or about 1763 along with his father and mother and other members of the Jacob Barker family. He occupied Lot Number Eight at Sheffield, in the said township. After his decease this tract of land was granted to his heirs. Lot Number eight was a five hundred acre tract of land having a width of 42 rods and lying between Lot Number Seven granted to John Watson and Lot Number Nine granted to Nathan Smith. On December 26, 1798 heirs of Thomas Barker conveyed the homestead property to Thomas Barker of Sheffield for the sum of 229 pounds, 3 shillings and 8 pence.

William Smith was a Loyalist, came to New Brunswick and in 1799 received a grant of lands at Kingsclear, in the County of York, Province of New Brunswick. His obituary as it appeared in the April 16, 1834 issue of the New Brunsw - ick Royal Gazette, reads :-

" Died on Saturday evening last the 12th instant, in the 82 nd year of his age, Mr. William Smith. Mr. Smith was born at Long Island, County of Queens, in the then Province of New York. During the American war was engaged in mercantile pursuits in the City of New York, which he prosecuted with much success and which were chiefly confined to those of his own principles, and extended, at the evacuation of that City by the British Troops, to every part of the British possessions - this event, however, was attended with the most ruinous consequences from the loss of an immense property - a remnant of which he followed to this Province where he has since resid - ed. His life was of a uniform and consistant Char - acter, distinguished also by many Christian virtues; and while contending with acute and severe suffering he gave an unexampled evidence of patience and res - ignation to the Divine Will, and an entire reliance on the merits of his Redeemer. In his death a wife mourns the loss of a kind husband, his family and indulgent parent, and society that of a warm friend. His remains were interred on Monday last respectably attended.

The Smith family burial plot is located in the Loyalist Cemetery on Brunswick Street in Fredericton, N.B..

George A. Perley removed to Fredericton, N.B., on May 12th, 1840, and became a deputy sitting Justice of the Peace for the collection of debts and conveyances. About 1857 he purchased the Lipsett property on George Street, between St. John and Church Streets. His office and auction and commission rooms were in the old Provincial Building where the first New Brunswick Parliament was held. This building was torn down and the land is now occupied by "The Playhouse" on Queen Street, Fredericton.

Mr. Perley is descended from Israel Perley, one of the first settlers at the Township of Maugerville. In 1761, when Israel was twenty three years of age, the Massachusetts Government sent an exploring expedition to the St. John River. The party consisted of twelve men with Israel Perley their leader. They made a survey of the land later to be known as " The Maugerville Township " and, on their return home a colony of Essex County people was formed to establish a settlement upon this fertile wilderness land in Nova Scotia.

George A. Perley was a man who wanted to know all about his kinsfolk, and was widely known by his relation to a chart of the Perley Family embracing the names of the male heirs of Allen Perley, a native of Wales, who emigrated to New England, arriving at Charlestown, near Boston on July 12th, 1630. The family name in Flintshire, Wales, is Ap-Perley a common Welsh prefix, however, Allen shortened the name to Perley shortly after his arrival in America.

JOHN ESTEY

2. JOHN ESTEY (Richard) (born December 14, 1742, at Rowley, Massachusetts - died October 6, 1824, at Kingsclear - York County, N.B.), married on August 28, 1769 at Sheffield, in the Township of Maugerville, to MARY MOLLEY HARTT (born November 12th, 1750, in Massachusetts - died January 29th, 1825, at Kingsclear, York County, N.B.), daughter of Mercy (Hawkes) and Jonathan Hartt of Lynn, Massachusetts, and early settlers at the Maugerville Township in Nova Scotia.

In the draw for the Maugerville lots at Rowley, Massa - chusetts, in 1761, JOHN ESTEY drew Lot Number Twenty Five, in the Maugerville Township, and situated opposite what is now known as "Gilbert's Island", in the Saint John River at Sheffield. Here he settled, receiving title to one half of Crown Grant in 1765, and the remaining half of the granted acreage on July 4, 1770. At Sheffield he built two houses, a barn and other outbuildings. He cleared thirty acres of land for cultivation. The topography was flat, low land and each spring the Estey family and their neighbors in the settlement were compelled to prepare for the annual spring freshet on the Saint John River. The rising water usually covered most of the rich cultivated land and the families were forced to either move to the higher land on the oppo - site side of the river, or carry all their chattels to the upstairs portion of their home and reside there until the water receded.

In the year 1782, John Estey had leased a tract of land at Upper Gagetown, adjacent to his twin brother's property, and on high land that did not flood during the annual spring freshet. This parcel of land was leased solely for the purpose of having high ground where he could bring his livestock during high water on the Saint John River.

Many of the settlers in the Maugerville Township, dis - couraged by the annual consequence of the flooding, sold their farms and purchased other properties on the higher ground across the Saint John River at Burton and Gagetown, or obtained lands further up the river in the Parishes of Douglas and Kingsclear, in the County of York. Others set - tled on the Nashwaak River, a tributary of the Saint John River, in the Parish of St. Marys, York County, N.B.. When the United Empire Loyalists came to the area in 1783, all cleared land was at a premium, and the fertile cultivated farmland at Maugerville and Sheffield was in demand and sold at high prices. On April 5, 1786, JOHN ESTEY, conveyed his holdings at Sheffield to Captain Charles Harrison. His father, Richard Estey Senior, had deeded his southeast halfshare of Lot Number Twenty Four to Harrison at the same time. It appears the transaction was an exchange of farms. Captain Harrison and his brother Lieutenant James Harrison, had deeded a tract of land at Kingsclear to John Estey on or about the same date.

With reference to the leased lot of land at Gagetown, John Estey wrote the following memorial to His Excellency Thomas Carleton, the Lieutenant Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over His Majesty's Province of New Brunswick :-

" The Memorial of JOHN ESTEY of the Parish of Kings - clear humbly sheweth :-

That your Memorialist, in the year 1782, leased a tract of land of Mr. Munro in Gage Town then belonging to the Canada Company which tract of land was after - ward escheated and granted to one Maybee, who sold to Giles Woodward of whom your Memorialist purchased; that your Memorialist's view in purchasing it was to accommodate himself with a place to which he could remove his stock in times of freshets, he having one hundred acres of land on the opposite shore, thirty acres of which is cleared, with two houses and a barn erected on it; your Memorialist therefore humbly prays that the said lot of land which is described in the General Plan by Number 78, and bounded on the Easterly side by land of ZEBULON EASTY, may not be escheated as it will deprive your Memorialist of any place of safety for his stock during the freshets and your Memorialist as in duty bound shall pray. "

No action was taken by the Government officials on this matter. On the face of the Memorial, and dated March 28th, 1788 it was written :-

" Respecting the Lot No. 78, in the Parish of Gage - town :

The lot is No. 77, and under grant to Maybee, not escheated. "

On August 20, 1791, Silvanus Plumer forwarded the following memorandum to the Provincial Government office at Fredericton regarding Lot Number Twenty One at Kingsclear and owned by John Estey Senior :-

" I, the subscriber, having a Mortgage Deed of a lot of land in Kings Clear, in the County of York, owned by Mr. John Estey, the lot being Number 21, humbly request that when the Grant is given out that it may be given in the said John Estey Senior name; the sum dew (due) is seventy pounds, four shillings; this request from your humble servant. "

The answer to this memo was only one word written on the face of the document, "SETTLED".

On January 18, 1803, the elderly John Estey petitioned the New Brunswick Government for additional land at the rear of the original Crown Grants bordering on the Saint John River at Kingsclear. This thirteen hundred acres of land was shared with four of his sons, John Estey Jr., Aaron Estey, William Estey and Jonathan Estey, all grown men, three of them having families of their own. In 1811 the Esteys received a Grant of this tract of land. In the Crown Grant the family surname was spelled "Easty".

The senior John Estey also received a grant from the Crown of Lot Number Forty at Kingsclear, and, in his Last Will and Testament, bequeathed one half of this land grant to his son, William, and the remaining one half portion to his son, ENDICOTT ESTEY.

The obituary for John Estey Senior located in a copy of the Royal Gazette, Fredericton, N.B., and dated October 12th, 1824, reveals that he had died in his residence at Kingsclear in York County, N.B., on Wednesday last, (October 6, 1824), leaving in addition to his aged widow, eleven children, sixty two grandchildren and eighteen grandchildren. The obituary also documents reliable evidence on the entry of the Estey family into the Maugerville Township, reading in part:-

" Mr. Estey came with his parents to this country at the age of nineteen, where with difficulty and danger, they succeeded in settling in this part of the Province which previously was the resort of the native Indians. "

From this evidence it appears the Estey family was settled on the Saint John River, at what is now known as "Sheffield", Sunbury County, New Brunswick in 1762, along with other early pioneer settlers from New England.

The obituary for Mary (Hartt) Estey appeared in the February 8th, 1825, edition of the Royal Gazette at Fredericton, in which it noted :-

" She has resided in this Province about fifty years, during which time her life was a pattern of piety. "

The above vital statistics came to my attention after I had researched the early Estey families. Although the statistics shown above agree, in most instances, with my findings, I find it disappointing that a few of the records disagree with vital statistics diligently copied from microfilmed government documents, old church records and genealogical statistics located in family bibles, etc.. Researchers know what a difficult task it is to accurately copy a statistic when the registrar's handwriting is difficult to decipher or when the microfilm is of poor quality and not easy to read.

A few statistics for the Sheffield community were found on Reel No. F-1674 in the New Brunswick Archives. The marriage of Molly Hartt and John Estey is documented as August 28th, 1769. The date shown in the old Estey Bible cannot be explained. The following birth records also appear on this reel :-

There exists in the records of the Particular Baptist Church at Kingsclear, York County, N.B., a portion of an undated Memorial titled, " Some dates and sketches of the life of Mrs. Sarah Cypher " in which it notes that she was born SARAH ESTEY, at Sheffield, in the year 1770. It also stated that, in the year 1780, Reverend Joseph Crandall, a Baptist minister, was sent to visit the people on the Saint John River and introduce Baptist principles into the community and to organize Baptist Churches.

The original register of the Particular Baptist Church at Kingsclear states :-

" Be it remembered that in the month of June, A.D. 1825, a meeting was held at the Kingsclear Meeting House for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of organizing a church of the Particular Baptist Order in this place. "

The names of the members composing the original branch of the Baptist Church in 1825-26 were :-

JONATHAN SMITH, deacon; JACOB RING, clerk; JOHN MARSH; ARCHELAUS HAMMOND; AARON HARTT; WILLIAM ESTEY; ENOCH BURPEE; AUGUSTUS WOODWORTH; JOSHUA CURRY; DAVID COBURN; (certificate of transfer from Madam Keswick Church was accepted November 11, 1826 as deacon); CLARISSA HARTT; SARAH MARSH, widow; MARY EVERETT; HANNAH ESTEY, SENIOR; HANNAH SMITH; CHARLOTTE HARTT; HANNAH ESTEY, JUNIOR; ANN T. CLOFS (Close); DEBORAH ESTEY; PRUDENCE CLOFS (Close); PHOEBY CURRY.

Sarah (Estey) Cypher was converted with clear views of the gospel way of salvation and was one of the first who united at Kingsclear with the Particular Baptist Church. Her husband was one of the grantees in the original grants at Kingsclear, his lot of land being known and described as " Lot Number Eleven ", and containing Two Hundred and Fifty acres, more or less. The George Cypher Grant borders on the Saint John River, at Kingsclear, near the small community named " Springhill ". The 1851 census shows the widowed, Sarah Cypher, was then residing in the home of the Reverend George Rigby at Kingsclear, N.B..

MARY ELIZABETH ESTEY

4. MARY ELIZABETH ESTEY (John Junior; John; Richard), (born 1800 c - died March 8, 1864, at Wakefield, Carleton County, N.B., age 64 years), married on October 15, 1822, to REVEREND SAMUEL HARTT (born 1800 c - died January 16, 1867, age 67 years at Wakefield, Carleton County, N.B.) son of Clarissa (Hammond) and Samuel Hartt of Kingsclear, York County, N.B..

The immigrant ancestors of the Hartt family was ISAAC HARTT born in 1614, probably at Scratby, Norfolk, England. At least he was from Scratby when he sailed for America on the vessel " Rose ", which set sail from Yarmouth on April 11, 1636. He was a tutor in the family of Richard Carver. Isaac Hartt settled at Watertown, Massachusetts, purchasing a lot of land and constructing a home for his family. He became a soldier in King Philip's War serving in Captain Gardner's Company from February, 1675, to November, 1676. In October, 1656, he purchased 270 acres of land in Reading, (later North Lynnfield), Massachusetts, where he resided until his decease. ISAAC HARTT had married ELIZABETH HUTCHINS.

SAMUEL HARTT, son of Elizabeth (Hutchins) and Isaac Hartt, was born on February 9, 1656. He married SARAH ENDICOTT, and lived at the Hartt homestead in Lynnfield, Massachusetts. A family tradition has made the wife of Samuel Hartt a descendant of Governor Endicott, but it has not been documented as a definite fact. John Endicott, (1589 - 1665), was born at Dorchester, England, and emigrated to America in 1628. In later years he headed several expeditions against the American Indians. From 1641 to 1644 he held the position of Deputy Governor and Governor of Massachusetts. He died on March 15, 1665, at Boston, Massachusetts. There was a Sarah Endicott, the daughter of Dr. Zerrubabel Endicott, son of Governor John Endicott. Samuel Hartt followed the sea, beginning at the age of sixteen years. He received a silver cup from the Grand Turk during one of his voyages, and died on December 30, 1730.

JONATHAN HARTT, son of Sarah (Endicott) and Samuel Hartt, was born on November 2nd, 1710. He married MERCY HAWKES, who is believed to have a " Mayflower " ancestry, traced to Isaac Allerton, March 2, 1734/35, at Lynnfield, Massachusetts. They resided at Lynn and Lynnfield, Massachusetts, until or about 1764, when the family emigrated to the MAUGERVILLE TOWNSHIP, on the Saint John River in Nova Scotia, formerly a portion of the French colony called "Acadia".

SAMUEL HARTT, son of Mercy (Hawkes) and Jonathan Hartt,

In my research I also found an entry stating that Mary Elizabeth Estey and Samuel Hartt were married on October 17, 1822.

was born of uncertain date. His will was proven in the Province of New Brunswick Probate Court on March 23rd, 1814. On March 27, 1809, he had purchased Lot Number Seventeen and the island in front of the lot from the original grantee Cornelius Thompson. This 750 acre tract of land is located on the south bank of the Saint John River, at Spring Hill, Parish of Kingsclear, York County, New Brunswick.

The island in front of the Hartt farm has had numerous names:- " Saint Dons Island ", " Thompson Island " and as it is presently named, "HARTT ISLAND". The Hartt Island Atlantic salmon pool in the Saint John River is famous throughout North America and sportsmen still cast their lines each summer into the Hartt Island pool and other pools nearby, hopeful of a strike. The Hartt family enjoyed many delicious salmon dinners during their ownership of the property.

SAMUEL HARTT was married twice, his first wife being MARY ESTABROOKS, by whom he had the following issue :-

SARAN HARTT	married	JARVIS RING
HANNAH HARTT	"	JACOB RING

REVEREND SAMUEL HARTT, son of Clarissa (Hammond) and Samuel Hartt, was one of the earliest, most sacrificing and useful ministers of the Free Christian Baptist Church in New Brunswick. He and his wife, Mary, conveyed their share of the Thompson Grant at Springhill, in the Parish of Kingsclear, York County, N. B., to George Sutherland on September 30, 1830, along with their one eighth share of Saint Dons Island.

In later years the Reverend Samuel Hartt family resided at what became known as Jacksontown, Carleton County, N.B.. In a letter written by Elder Edward Weyman, another early organizer of the Free Christian Baptist faith, it notes the first meeting between Henry Cronkhite and Reverend Hartt :-

" Samuel Hartt, on his first visit up to Jacksontown with his wife to see a farm he had granted to him there, drove to Southampton and called at a hotel kept by Henry Cronkhite, a professor of religion, who had got overcome by the world and was in a low captive state of mind. But hearing the reports about Samuel Hartt he resolved to know what he was and watched every motion with scrutinizing eyes.

When Hartt came to the table for his dinner and gave thanks to God he, Cronkhite, broke out in praising the Lord. Though in a captive state he knew his master's voice and they were ever one in union in the work of God, for he soon came forward as a Blessed Labourer in the cause of God, his labours being much Blessed while he lived. "

The Census Returns of 1851, for the Parish of Wakefield, Carleton County, N. B., gives the following statistics for the Reverend Samuel Hartt's household :-

DEBORAH ESTEY

4. DEBORAH ESTEY (John Jr.; John; Richard) (born 1805 c - died July 1, 1885), married on 1829 c to JOSHUA CHRISTIE (born September 28, 1797 - died April 8, 1882, at Washburn, Maine), son of Esther (Burpee) and Jesse Christie of Keswick Ridge, York County, N.B..

James Christie the grandfather of Joshua Christie, born in Ireland on October 20th, 1715, arrived in New England, North America in April, 1729 at the age of thirteen years. His father, Jesse Christie, had emigrated to America several years earlier. At the age of twenty eight years James Christie married Agnes Canada, daughter of Anne and Thomas Canada. She was born on September 15, 1723. He died October 1, 1755, and his widow subsequently married her second spouse, James Quinton.

Among the early pioneer settlers at the Maugerville Township in Nova Scotia, were Jesse Christie and his elder brother, Thomas, two of the children of Agnes and James Christie. They both obtained grants of Crown land at Maugerville. Thomas Christie was born on April 17th, 1749, and had married the widow, Molly Cowlett, daughter of John Smith of Boxford, Massachusetts. He died on December 8th, 1773, by drowning.

Jesse Christie was born on August 1, 1755, and died on November 30, 1828. In 1781 he married Esther Burpee, the daughter of Mary (Saunders) and Jeremiah Burpee, who was born at Rowley, Massachusetts. The Burpee family were also early settlers in the Maugerville Settlement.

The high freshets on the Saint John River at Maugerville made farming a difficult life for the new settlers and the Jesse Christie family was among the Maugerville pioneers to resettle on higher ground in the Keswick Ridge - Mactaquac River Valley part of York County, N.B..

Joshua Christie was the tenth child in a family of thirteen. He was educated in the Keswick Ridge area and remained in this farming community until shortly after marriage. On July 20th, 1830, he and his wife, and their newly born child, removed to the Aroostook River Valley in the State of Maine, U.S.A.. They travelled up the St. John River in a small tow boat and then paddled up the Aroostook River in a canoe. The black flies and mosquitoes were so unbearable the small baby almost died from the experience.

The Christie family lived in the vicinity of Perham, in the State of Maine. They were well respected inhabitants and Joshua Christie was well remembered in the community for the white high hat and swallow - tailed coat he wore on special occasions.

Deborah and Joshua Christie were interred at Washburn, Maine, in the Aroostook Valley Cemetery.

In a series of articles written by Fred H. Phillips entitled "New Brunswick Lumber Kings" one of the pioneer lumbermen he wrote about was John A. Morrison. The article reads in part :-

" Any record of lumber operators on the Saint John River should include an astute little Irishman by the name of John A. Morrison.

Born in Belfast, John A. first saw the light during the staging of the Orangeman's parade, July 12, 1820. He first emigrated to this country in 1839 and subsequently made several trips back and forth. His first lumbering venture was at Buctouche in 1858. The present Irving mill at that point is the original Morrison property.

In 1860 the Morrison hopes became fixed to the River St. John. That year John A. bought out the old Kilgore Shives property, at the east end of Fredericton, and began milling there on his own account. The newly purchased mill burned that same years.

The mill purchased in 1860 was the first of four that had stood on the same site. The second and third burned in 1872 and 1885, respectively. The first three were gang saw mills and has cut long lumber. By 1885, however, smaller logs were coming down the river, and the industry was changing to adapt itself to the raw material.

The fourth mill was equipped with rotary saws and turned out cedar products at first clapboards and shingles and later shingles altogether. During the period of its operation the business was conducted under several titles. Originally it was John A. Morrison Ltd., later changed to John A. Morrison & Sons, Ltd. The founder died in 1893, and active management was assumed by John A. Morrison, Jr.. The final executive was known as the Phoenix Milling Company and this group operated the plant until 1914. Afterwards the properties were acquired by the Fraser Companies Ltd and the fourth mill was destroyed by fire about 1918.

The old chimney , guant sentinel of the past, loomed above the ruins until the autumn of 1932. Then it was condemned by the city engineer as a menace to the highway nearby and top - pled under his supervision one bleak and rainy midnight in mid-November. "

Business was carried on from this site for eleven years, and from different outlets throughout the business section of Saint John by Charles Everett and his descendants for well over another one hundred years. For over sixty years the firm employed forty women making cloth caps and four men and twelve women manufacturing silk hats. Another twelve females and three males worked in the fur room.

Endicott Estey conveyed a portion of this property to Jonathan Estey and, on November 15th, 1845, deeded the following tract of land to his son, Charles B. Estey :-

" All that certain piece, parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Wakefield, in the County of Carleton and Province aforesaid, known and distinguished as part of Lot Number Four - teen granted to Henry A. Endicott Estey "

On May 5th, 1851, Hannah Estey, widow, and Stephen Estey, yeoman, (and Executor), conveyed her interest in the Endicott Estey farm to William S. Everett of Kingsclear, N.B..

In the early days of the automobile the main highway road running through Kingsclear was hazardous. Like most roads in the province at that time it was a gravel road and when not graded frequently classed as, " like the family washboard ". Another feature, and much more dangerous, were the curves in the highway at French Village. Numerous accidents occurred on the five or more right angle turns, one after the other, especially at night by travellers unfamiliar with the terrain. When the Trans - Canada Highway was constructed this portion of the old road was eliminated, however, during the Mactaquac Dam Project a part of the old road was reconstructed, and now one or more of the right angle curves is being used as a part of the access road to the Kingsclear Indian Reserve and surrounding French Village community.

In August, 1815, Aaron Estey purchased property on the Royal Road, then in the Parish of St. Marys, York County, N.B., in what was known as " The Nashwaaksis Grants ". At this location he was a mill owner and resided in the community, given the name "Royal Road ", for the remainder of his lifetime. The bridge, where the Royal Road crosses the Nashwaaksis Stream, was called and is still known as " Estey's Bridge ", preserving the family name to this day in the district. The family business site was called " The Nashwaaksis Mills " and the main landmarks on the property were the Grist Mill and the Saw Mill, situated on the bank of the Nashwaaksis Stream from which the power was obtained to run the waterwheels. In November, 1841, Aaron Estey and his spouse Barbara Martha, conveyed a portion of their holdings at Nashwaaksis Mills to their sons, Samuel Estey and George Estey. After the decease of Aaron Estey Senior the family business was carried on by his sons, George F., Samuel H., Charles W. and Aaron Estey Junior.

Note : The Parish of St. Marys was divided in the year 1824, and the Nashwaaksis community and part of the Royal Road district became a portion of the Parish of Douglas.

Barbara Martha (Brooks) Estey probably was born in New England. The 1851 Census Return records her entry into New Brunswick as 1783, estimated to be the year of her birth. It is presumed she was interred alongside her hus - band in the Pickard Cemetery at Nashwaaksis, now a part of the City of Fredericton, N.B., however, her name was not inscribed on Aaron Estey's gravestone, which still stands, well weatherbeaten due to its age but quite legible.

Church and family statistics for the Aaron Estey family are missing, and birthdates shown are mostly calculations. The following sequence of names may be out of succession.

Williams died on November 28, 1834, according to the notice of his decease in the local newspaper, at the age of 32 years, making it impossible for him to have a son born in 1836. Unmarried

In 1852 Charles W. Estey and his brother, William J. Estey, were established millowners at Portland, Saint John County, N. B.. In December of that year they leased additional property on the Straight or North Shore Road, in the Parish of Portland, from the Honourable William Hazen Estate.

Ten years later, during the American Civil War, Charles W. Estey volunteered in the Union Army, enlisting on August 14th, 1862, at Monmouth, Illinois, mustered September 19th, 1862, and served as a corporal in Company "C", 117th Regiment, Illinois Volunteer Infantry, for three years. He was given an honourable discharge from the army on August 5th, 1865. He returned to the family homestead at Royal Road, in the Parish of Douglas, York County, New Brunswick, and became part owner of his father's estate, known as Nashwaaksis Mills. He remained at Royal Road, today better known as "Estey's Bridge", for the remainder of his lifetime.

MARY ESTEY4. MARY ESTEY (Aaron; John; Richard) (born

Did Mary Estey marry George Nevers, the son of Phoebe (Perley) and John Nevers of Douglas, York County, N.B.? George Nevers was the brother of Charles Nevers, husband of Sarah Ann Estey, a sister of the above Mary Estey.

Family records in the possession of Phyllis R. Mills, (nee Estey), reveal that Mary Estey did marry into the Nevers family but gave no first name for her spouse. Land and census records show George Nevers and his wife, Mary, residing at Douglas, York County, N.B. and owned property bordering on the North side of the Saint John River with its rear boundary next to the Aaron Estey Mills property. In the 1851 Census Return for Douglas, George Estey is shown as being 42 years of age and his wife, Mary, is two years younger, placing her in the correct age bracket to be a child of Aaron Estey.

The Nevers family has been researched by George Hayward, but he also has been unable to locate the marriage record for the said George Nevers and his wife, Mary. It is my supposition that many records for the Parish of Douglas, York County, N.B., have been destroyed. No issue has been found for George Nevers and his wife, Mary.

The widowed Ruth Amelia Estey was still residing in Simonds in 1851 with her son, Aaron, and two daughters, Johannah and Hannah Estey. On September 10, 1857, Ruth A. Estey was conveyed property in the City of Fredericton, York County, N.B. by Aaron Hartt Estey. The deed description for this lot of land reads as follow :-

Aaron Hartt was the grandson of Jonathan Hartt of Lynnfield, Massachusetts, who had brought his family to the Township of Maugerville, on the Saint John River in Nova Scotia, during the early days of the settlement.

On March 27th, 1809, Samuel Hartt, the son of Jonathan Hartt and his wife, the former Mercy Hawkes, purchased Lot Number Seventeen, containing 750 acres, more or less, from the original grantee of the property, Cornelius Thompson. This lot of land, bordering on the south side of the Saint John River at Springhill, York County, N. B., was farmed by the Hartt family for nearly 100 years.

In his Last Will and Testament, Samuel Hartt bequeathed the lower part of his farm to his son, Aaron. For a short period of time Aaron took up residence near his half brother, the Reverend Samuel Hartt, in Carleton County, N. B., however, he soon returned to Springhill where he farmed his part of the Hartt homestead. At his decease, Aaron Hartt was interred at the Dunphy Cemetery in Kingsclear.

Jarvis Hartt attended the University of New Brunswick in Fredericton, N. This injustice led directly to the founding of the Fredericton Baptist Seminary in 1835. Mr. Hartt took charge of the Paradise Academy at Wilmot, Nova Scotia, in 1846, and five years later became the principal at Horton Academy, Wolfville, Nova Scotia. ZEBULON ESTEY

2. ZEBULON ESTEY (Richard) (born December 14, 1742, at Rowley, Massachusetts - died October 10, 1806, in Queens County, N.B.) married on August 8, 1765, at Newburyport, Massachusetts, to MARY MOLLIE BROWN (baptized November 6, 1743, at Ipswich, Massachusetts, if the daughter of Mary and Nehemiah Brown of Ipswich, or born February 14, 1743, at Newbury, Massachusetts, if the daughter of Mercy and Francis Brown of Newbury - died August 9, 1835, at Upper Gagetown, Queens County, N.B., age 93 years)

Zebulon Estey came to the Maugerville Township, on the Saint John River, in or about 1763. When the Government at Halifax made a survey of settlers occupying lands on the said river in 1783, he and his family were residing on Crown Land in the Township of Gage, where Zebulon had cleared three acres of land and constructed a log home, and built a grist mill. He had been in possession of this property by occupation for five years.

The Estey family had occupied the land at Gagetown without first obtaining approval from the authorities at Halifax and, on May 14, 1784, the following letter was delivered to Zebulon Estey and other early settlers from the newly established government at Parr Town, New Brun - swick.

" Parr Town, 14th May, 1784.

Gentlemen :

I am directed by the Honourable, the Chief Justice of the Province to inform you that it is his direc - tion that you instantly on the receipt of this letter give up the lands respectively possess in Gagetown without grant or other title than improvements to the persons producing. Certificates from Major Studholm's office show they were respectively drawn. Your im - provements on those Lotts will be enquired into as early as possible and a compensation made either from government or otherwise.

It is there for the Chief Justice orders that you attempt not at your peril refuse giving up your poss - essions to the persons who have drawn the land you at present occupy.

I am, Gentlemen,
your very humble servant,

S. D. Street "

On the reverse side of the letter we find the Govern - ment officials saw fit to change their decision in cer - tain cases :-

Halifax, 8th June, 1784.

The Governor has given directions to Major Studholm that Zebulon Estey, Archelaus Hammond, Elijah Easter - brooks, Elias Clarke, John Richardson and Francis Grant shall remain in the possession of the lands which they now occupy.

Richard Buckley. "

Zebulon Estey was concerned about his holdings and, on February 22, 1785, the following memorial was prepared :-

" The memorial of Zebulon Estey of Gage Town in the County of Sunbury,

Most Humbly Sheweth,

That your Memorialist (an old inhabitant) has ever since the year 1788 possessed a Lott of Land in the said Township on which he has built two houses, a grist mill and made other improvements; that since the emi - gration of the Loyalists to this Province, the above - named Township is laidout in Lotts of 200 acres for the benefit and accomodation of those Loyalists; that the Lott on which your Memorialist has made the above men - tioned improvements and now lives, is known by the name of Lott No. 76, which said Lott as it is now laid out does not comprehend the whole of the improvements made by your Memorialist on said Lott, but leaves out the grist mill which is the most useful and beneficial of all the other improvements; that by taking in four chains and one half from Lott No.75, which is Vacant, and Bad Land, the grist mill and all other improvements of your memorialist on said land will comprehend; that your Memorialist has been promised a Grant for the above land by His Excellency, the Governor of Halifax, previous to the coming of Your Excellency to this Province but has not obtained a Grant for the same. Your Memorialist therefore humbly prays Your Excellency will be pleased (in consideration of the premises) to give him a Grant for the above mentioned Lott of land with the additional 4 1/2 chains in breadth out of Lott No. 75 (which is Bad Land and not claimed by any person) so as to comprehend the mill aforesaid, if to Your Excellency it shall seem meet.

22nd Feby. 1785.

Zebulon Estey "

Zebulon Estey was successful in obtaining a Grant of his Gagetown property and remained on this lot for a number of years before moving across the Saint John River to the Parish of Canning, Queens County, N. B.. Of this early New Brunswick settler, W. O. Raymond wrote :-

" Zebulon Estey was a ruling elder of the Congregational Church at Maugerville in 1775. Through the ministry of the Reverend Joseph Crandall, one of the fathers of the Baptist denomination in the Maritime Provinces, a considerable number of the Congregationalists of Waterborough and the vicinity were led to organize a Baptist Church. Their leader, Elijah Estrabrooks, was foremost in the movement which was much aided by the unexpected conversion of the old squire, Zebulon Estey, to Baptist principles. Of the church organized at Waterborough in 1800, Elijah Estrabrooks became the pastor; Edward Coy and Joseph Estabrooks, deacons; and Zebulon Estey, clerk. The Esteys proved a prolific stock and their descendants on the St. John River are numerous. "

THE BROWN FAMILY ANCESTRY

Documenting the ancestry of Mary Mollie (Brown) Estey is a difficult task. In a " Register of Pedigrees for the Estey Family ", prepared by Spencer Joseph Estey, (page number 762 in this study), for the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, it reads :-

" ZEBULON ESTEY, b. Dec. 14, 1742, at Rowley, Mass.; d. Oct.10, 1806, at Canning, Province of New Brunswick; m. Aug. 8, 1765, at Newburyport, Mass., to Mary Mollie Brown, (possibly dau. of Francis and Mercy (Lowell) Brown, of Newbury, Mass.), b. February 14, 1743, at Newbury, Mass.; d August 12, 1835, age 93 years, at "

" Pioneer Families of New Brunswick ", prepared by Esther Clark Wright of Wolfville, N. S., also notes the marriage of Zebulon Estey to Mary or Molly Brown at Newbury, Massachusetts, on August 8, 1765, but makes no reference to her parents.,

Mrs. Patricia Hart of Ottawa, Ontario, has also researched the Brown Family and it is her conclusion that Zebulon Estey, the son of Ruth (Fiske) and Richard Estey, had married Mary Brown, the daughter of Mary and Nehemiah Brown of Ipswich, Massachusetts. Her theory was concluded from the following statistics :-

Essex Institute : Ipswich, Essex County, Massachusetts

- a) Nehemiah Brown, son of William Brown, intends to marry Mary Tanor, June, 1743, at Ipswich.

Mary, daughter of Nehemiah and Mary Brown, baptized on November 6, 1743, at Ipswich.

Lt. Nehemiah Brown, born 1745 - died June 16, 1812, age 67 years.

Note: The first male child of Mary and Zebulon Estey was christened, " Nehemiah Brown Estey ".

- b) Francis Brown of Newbury, Massachusetts, born 1628 c, in England, married on November 21st, 1650, to Mary Johnson, born - died April 4, 1679. Their eighth child, Francis, born on March 17, 1673.

Francis Brown, born 1716 c, married 1741 c, at Newbury, Massachusetts, to Mercy Lowell.

Take note that Mary Mollie (Brown) and Zebulon Estey did not name any of their children "Mercy" or "Francis".

SUSANNAH ESTEY

3. SUSANNAH ESTEY (Zebulon; Richard) (born April 2, 1769, at Sheffield, in the Maugerville Township of Nova Scotia - died , probably at Queensbury, York County, N.B.), married on , to NATHANIEL WRIGHT (born - died 1824 c, probably at Lower Queensbury, York County, N.B.), son of

Nathaniel Wright was a United Empire Loyalist who had deserted from the Continental Army at Boston and sailed to the mouth of the Saint John River in or about 1783. He took up residence in Queens County where he forwarded several memorials to the Crown requesting grants of land. He first drew one half of Lot Number Three on the Oromocto River, however, a petition prepared by Peter Vanderburg states he had obtained half of the said Lot Number Three and was now requesting the one half part of the lot formerly drawn by Nathaniel Wright, who had left the Province. Nat Wright had not left New Brunswick and in response to a newspaper advertisement placed by Vanderburg he forwarded the following petition to Governor Carleton :-

" I have found advertised in Saturday's paper, dated August 27, 1785, half a lott of land lying on the River Oromocto, No. 3, formerly drawn by Nathaniel Wright, Micheau's Survey, by Peter Vanderburg.

Do humbly beg leave to inform your Excellency that I am the Nathaniel Wright that drew said land and am prepared to settle on it immediately and beg leave to stand tryal with Mr. Vanderburg. "

Nathaniel Wright did not received a grant of the property.

On September 26, 1791, "Nat" Wright and his brother-in-law, Nehemiah Estey, petitioned the Lieutenant Governor, Thomas Carleton, for Lots Numbered 22 and 23 on Grand Lake at Cumberland Bay, Queens County, N. B.. They both were destitute of any land at the time and requested a grant of the two surveyed properties. In February, 1802, Alexander Reece informed the Government that he was settled on Lots 22 and 23, which had been improved by Nathaniel Wright and purchased by the petitioner. In a petition prepared by the inhabitants residing and occupying the lots at Cumberland Bay in February 1793, it is recorded that "Nat" Wright had occupied Lots Nos. 22 and 23 for one year and cleared four acres, more or less.

The Wright family had left the Grand Lake area and, on July 5, 1794, Nathaniel Wright and Nehemiah Brown Estey, both now of Gagetown, Queens County, N. B., purchased Lot Number Sixty Seven, at Lower Queensbury, in York County, N.B., from their brother-in-law, Abraham Brown. This land had formerly been granted to Captain Ebenezer Brown, the father of the said Abraham Brown. The 465 acre tract of land was subdivided by the grantees and the two former inhabitants of Queens County took up residences in the farming community of Queensbury. Nehemiah B. Estey was a blacksmith in the area until March 4, 1805, when he conveyed his share of Lot Number 67 to "Nat" Wright.

Susannah and Nathaniel Wright farmed the large Brown grant until his decease in or about 1824. She conveyed her share of the homestead farm to her sons, James and Zebulon Wright, on September 11th, 1830. No burial plots have been located for Susannah Wright or her husband. The records of the Mactaquac Baptist Church makes note of the death of a Susannah Wright in August, 1851, but no age or other information given.

Note :- The Will of Nathaniel Wright of Queensbury, York County, N. B., was filed in Probate Court on June 8, 1824. Administration of his goods and chattels was granted to Susannah Wright, Executrix of the Estate.

NEHEMIAH WRIGHT

4. NEHEMIAH WRIGHT (Susannah Estey; Zebulon; Richard)
 (born 1793 c - died July 30, 1877, age 84 years), married on _____, to ELIZABETH "BETSY" BLOODWORTH
 (born 1803 c - died June 15, 1889, in her 87th years), daughter of

A Nathaniel Bloodworth was the grantee of Lot Number 20 at Upper Queensbury, York County, N.B.. It is a favourable presumption that Nathaniel Bloodworth and his wife, Elizabeth, were ancestors of " Betsy " Bloodworth, the wife of Nehemiah Wright. Nathaniel Bloodworth died in the summer of 1805, and his Last Will and Testament, dated July 27th, 1805, and registered in the York County Probate Court on August 19, 1805, bequeaths most of his Queensbury property to his son John. The petitions of Nehemiah Wright show his friendship or family connection with a John Bloodworth and no other Bloodworth or Bloodsworth families resided in the County of York at the time. John Bloodworth later was an inhabitant of Carleton County, N. B., where he was a Crown land grantee.

Nehemiah Wright was a native of New Brunswick and prior to October, 1819, had resided in the Parish of Queensbury, York County, N.B., for five years. On March 3rd, 1821, he and John Bloodworth had petitioned the New Brunswick Government for land at Wakefield in Carleton County. Formerly Wright and Bloodworth had received an allotment of land in Northumberland County, however, the property was located in a remote part of the county and it was impossible to make permanent settlement owing to the distance from a market. In the 1821 petition Mr. Wright is described as a married man with one child, and requesting a grant of Lots "B" and "C" lying on the south west side of the Saint John River in the Parish of Wakefield. On January 2nd, 1822, a second petition was prepared by Nehemiah Wright, from the Queensbury area, which made reference to the March 3, 1821 memorial or petition for Lots "B" and "C". A David Nichol had previously obtained an allotment in the tract of land, leaving only one hundred acres for John Bloodworth who, in consequence, declined having anything to do with the said parcel of land. Nehemiah Wright, now wishes this remaining one hundred acres as his two hundred acre allotment is insufficient to support his family.

On March 12, 1825, at the age of twenty nine years, Mr. Wright forwarded a third petition to the N. B. Government in which he mentioned the lot allotted to him four years previously and now situated in that portion of Carleton County known as the Parish of Kent, adjoining David Nichol's allotment. He had moved to the property, cleared and improved the lot and constructed a house and a barn. Fourteen acres were now ready for cultivation.

On October 27, 1830, Nehemiah Wright and his wife, Eliza - beth, conveyed their three hundred acre tract of land in the Parish of Kent to John Mitchell of Lincoln, Sunbury County, N. B.. The property was described as being bounded on the north by the Moses Holmes grant and on the south by the grant to David Nichol.

Prior to the abovementioned conveyance in Carleton County, and on June 23, 1830, Nehemiah Wright purchased a portion of Lot Number Sixty Two at Lower Queensbury, York County, N. B., from William and Charlotte Peters. This 170 acre lot of land was formerly granted to Charles King. On June 7th, 1837, he obtained additional acreage in said Lot Number Sixty Two from William King, a descendant of the original grantee.

In June, 1851, the Census Return for Queensbury shows that Nehemiah Wright made his living by farming. He also had set out nets in the Saint John River at the front of his property and caught thirty salmon worth thirty dollars. The Wrights were occupying only one half of the residence on the farm, the remaining part of the home being occupied by their son-in-law, George Currie and his wife Isabella. Sarah Ann Wright, age 20 years, and 18 year old Eunice Wright, two of Nehemiah Wright's daughters and Nathaniel Wright, a 21 year old nephew were also members of the household. Ten years later the two daughters had married and left the homestead, however besides the 31 year old nephew, Nathaniel Wright, the Census Return for 1861 included another nephew, Zebulon Wright, 20 years of age and a niece, Keziah Wright, 16 years old, residing in the Nehemiah Wright residence.

On March 9, 1866, Nehemiah Wright and his wife, Elizabeth, and other members of the family, conveyed the Wright Farm to Joseph N. Slood. In the deed description the boundaries of the 200 acre lot were described as :-

" Easterly by James Slood; Westerly by Joseph H. Dykeman; on the front by the River Saint John, and on the rear by the baseline. "

The Wrights were members of the Baptist Church at Mataquac and the records of this church make note of the dismissal of Nehemiah Wright, Elizabeth Wright and Keziah Wright in March, 1866. From Queensbury they moved to Carleton County and lived at Wicklow in Carleton County. Nehemiah and " Betsy " Wright were interred at the Centreville Baptist Church Cemetery in Carleton County, N.B.. It is my supposition the Keziah Wright dismissed is the aforementioned niece of Nehemiah Wright.

5. In a petition prepared by Nehemiah Wright on March 23rd, 1821, it is documented he was a married man with one male child. The name of this son is yet unknown.

Kesiah and James Green resided at Blissfield, Northum - berland County, N.B. in the year 1851. They later moved to the State of Maine, U. S. A., and in 1867 were residing at the Reed Plantation, Aroostook County, Maine. On October 3 of that year James Green was conveyed a 42 acre tract of land in the Eastern part of the "Taylor Block" at Wicklow, Carleton County, N. B., by Nehemiah Wright and his wife, Elizabeth. It is presumed that James Green died sometime between 1891 and 1901. Evidence taken from census records show he was still residing at Wicklow in early 1891. His name does not appear in the census for 1901, however, the 77 year old widow, Keziah Green, appears in the return residing at Wicklow in the home of her son, Alexander.

Although there may be more, I have documented the fol - lowing children of James and Kesiah Green.

Kennedy (born _____ 1825 c, in Nova Scotia, Canada - died December 28, 1900, at Wicklow, Carleton County, New Brunswick), son of _____ (_____) and John Kennedy, natives of Scotland.

Eunice Wright had married Alexander H. Kennedy in the early 1850s and they first resided at Lower Queensbury, in York County, N. B.. They became members of the Mactaquac Baptist Church and, for the next 13 or 14 years, was a farming family in the community. On November 3, 1864, Alex Kennedy purchased a parcel of land in the Parish of Wicklow, Carleton County, N.B., from his wife's parents, Nehemiah Wright and his wife, Elizabeth. This land was a part of the Taylor Block, lying next to Lot No. 2, in the H. W. Garden Survey of 1861 and conveyed to Mr. Wright by Israel Cox. The Mactaquac Church records reveal that the Kennedy family was dismissed from the congregation on the 4th day of September, 1870. They moved to Carleton County, and on March 14, 1871, purchased additional land at Wicklow from Nehemiah and Elizabeth Wright. The deed description for the land conveyed was as follows :-

" All that certain piece or parcel of land and premises situate lying and being in said Parish of Wicklow and County aforesaid and bounded as follows, to wit : On the East by land owned by James Green on the North by land owned by Isaac Perkins and on the South by land owned by Thomas Boyd, the same being a part of the Taylor Block so called, conveyed to Richard Holyoke by Israel Washburn of Orono in the State of Maine, and Nathaniel Green of Bangor in the said State and containing sixty acres more or less. "

The next deed recorded in the Carleton County Registry Office is a conveyance from Alexander Kennedy to George W. Currie, his brother-in-law.

It is now documented that, in the year 1871, Elizabeth and Nehemiah Wright were again united with three of their daughters, all taking up residence in the Parish of Wicklow, and where the families worked as farmers in this rich agricultural community.

It appears that Alexander H. Kennedy had resided in the County of Carleton prior to his migration to Queensbury. On April 25th, 1883, he and other members of the Kennedy family conveyed property to George Kennedy, a blacksmith at Wicklow, and John Kennedy of Andover, Victoria County. The land described was originally granted on August 1st, 1870, to Thomas Kennedy, and known as the 110 acre Lot No. 20, 5th Tier of lots in the Presque Isle Block, Parish of Wilmot, Carleton County, N. B.. The recital in the deed lists the grantors as children of the late John Kennedy. These grantors were : -

2. Thomas Kennedy and wife, Ann Jane, of Andover.
3. Eliza Pomphrey, (nee Kennedy), Wicklow.

SUPPLEMENT

4. A family listing found in the New Brunswick Archives at Fredericton, notes the birthdate of William Shepherd Estey as October 4, 1796, and that of his wife, Lucretia Estabrooks as November 2nd, 1796. The statistics on Page 757 were located in a short family study prepared by Spencer Joseph Estey, (see Page Number 762), who lived in Brooklyn, New York, U.S.A.. Both entries appear to be reliable sources and it is difficult to say which source is correct.

Later in his lifetime William S. Estey was a surveyor of lumber and scaled forests products throughout York County, He was a deacon in the Baptist Church in Fredericton and a Captain in the militia. He and his wife were interred in the old Loyalist Cemetery in the centre of the old Town Place of the City of Fredericton.

5. Mary Jane Estey (born August 24th, 1819, at Fredericton, N. B. - died April 5, 1897, at the same place), married on December 21st, 1839, to George William Turner (born November 22, 1816, at Fredericton, N.B. - died August 27, 1857, at the same place), son of Phoebe () and Robert Turner of Fredericton.

Note ; In the January 4, 1840, edition of the "New Brunswick Courier" newspaper the marriage date for the above was announced as January 21, ult, according to a book on vital statistics taken from newspapers, and filed in the New Brunswick Archives. This erroneous entry is interpreted as December 21st, 1839. Other researchers accept the marriage date as December 31, 1839 and January 2, 1840.

Holden Turner, the progenitor of the family in New Brunswick was a native of Ayr, Scotland and served in the 22nd Regiment stationed at Halifax, Nova Scotia, sometime prior to 1873. He was a United Empire Loyalist and settled at Lincoln, Sunbury County, N.B., where he and Alexander Hutchinson, (probably his brother-in-law), were inhabitants for a period of time.

In " The Loyalists of New Brunswick ", by Esther Clark Wright, Holden Turner is included with the notation, "Settled in York County". No military service is included with the entry. His date of settlement in the province is substantiated for the third time in his Memorial for land dated May 6, 1820, in which Holden Turner, William Turner and John Hayward, all of the Parish of Lincoln, declare, inter alia :-

" That your memorialist Holden Turner is a native of Scotland and has been an inhabitant of this province for nearly thirty six years; is a married man of the age of fifty nine years, and never received any land from the Crown. "

Holden Turner and his spouse, the former Jennet Hutchinson, resided in Lincoln from 1784 until 1821, or thereabouts. At Lincoln they raised a total of ten children. In the year 1801 Turner purchased parcels of land in Fredericton, however, did not move to the town until the 1820s. In New Brunswick the occupation of Holden Turner was recorded as "Cordwainer". He died at Fredericton in or about 1844. Jennet (Henderson) Turner was born about 1766 and died after 1850. Their ten children were ROBERT, George Henderson, John D., Margaret Agnes, William B., Amelia, Belle, Charlotte, Daniel B. and James E. Turner.

Robert Turner, the eldest child, was born about 1786 at Lincoln. He moved to Fredericton, a few miles farther up the Saint John River where it is believed his four children were born. He resided in New Brunswick's capital city until his decease in 1823. Records for a marriage have not been located and the only known name for his wife is her given name, Phoebe. Robert and Phoebe Turner had four children, Charles M. Turner, of Andover, Victoria County, N.B.; GEORGE WILLIAM TURNER, of Fredericton, N.B.; Frances, wife of Frank Tibbits of Victoria County, N.B. and an unidentified Mrs. Street. In the will of Robert Turner dated February 22, 1822, and probated on December 23, 1823, the above George W. Turner was bequeathed property on Sugar Island above Fredericton. After deducting Jennet Turner's one third dower interest, the residential property was equally divided amongst his children, share and share alike. reserving nevertheless, unto his son, George William Turner, the home and outhouses annexed thereto, upon the condition he shall pay his sisters and brothers for their equal share of the property.

DOROTHY ESTEY

3. DOROTHY "DOLLY" ESTEY (Zebulon; Richard) (born March 23, 1774, at Sheffield, in the Township of Maugerville on the Saint John River, Nova Scotia - died August 14, 1843, at Upper Gagetown, Queens County, N.B.), married on June 9, 1790, to DAVID CURREY (born 1767, in New York, British North America - died August 12, 1827, at Upper Gagetown, Queens County, N. B.), son of Eunice (Travis) and Joshua Currey, United Empire Loyalists, and early settlers at Upper Gagetown.

Note:- The family name is also shown as " Curry " and " Currie " by descendants of the progenitor in New Brunswick. Most family members in New Brunswick now use the spelling, " Currie " .

Joshua Currey Senior and his family resided at Peekskill, New York, at the outbreak of the American Revolutionary War. He sided with those loyal to the Crown and narrowly escaped capture when the revolutionists arrived at their residence to arrest him for being a Loyalist. He saved himself from capture by hiding under the floorboards in his home. His son, David, also had a narrow escape and was in fear for his life. The family decided to flee the country. Knowing that he would be unable to take all of their chattels, Joshua Currey sold much of their personal property and collected all the currency he could obtain prior to their long journey. The family left New England from the port of New York along with other families loyal to the British Crown. The schooner set sail for the mouth of the Saint John River, arriving at Saint John Harbour on October 23, 1783. The Currey family remained at the mouth of the river, (later to become the site of the City of Saint John), for one year. Joshua Currey, his sons, David and Joshua Junior, and the other members of the family then moved up the Saint John River and settled at what is now known as Upper Gagetown, in the County of Queens and Province of New Brunswick.

There is a tale that Joshua Currey had buried a small fortune of gold coins on his property at Upper Gagetown, and in later years, when the land was owned by the Coy family, the young Coy children were out with pick and shovel searching for buried doubloons.

David Currey was a farmer and resided at Upper Gagetown for the remainder of his lifetime. He appears to have been a prosperous farmer, his will recording substantial bequeaths to each of his children. Dorothy and David Currey were interred at the Upper Gagetown Cemetery

A Currey family genealogy found in the New Brunswick Archives notes the birthdate of David Currey as July 25, 1767, at Cortlandtown, N. Y.. In my research I also found a record stating his birth date as shown in this genealogy. A third history of the Currey family gives the birth date of Mr. Currey as April 27, 1767, at Peekskill, New York.. The inscription on the gravestone erected by George H. and James R. Currey, the two youngest sons, certifies David Currey died on August 12, 1827, age 60 years, establishing his year of birth favourably with all three studies as 1767.

George Brown was a farmer at Middle Andover, Victoria County, N.B.. On August 24, 1886, he deeded to William A. Brown, the son of John Z.  (born 1815 - died 1882), married on , to ELIZA ELIZABETH (born July 23, 1824 - died 1910), daughter of

It is a reasonable probability that Ruth and Alexander Brown had named their son after her father, Zebulon Estey, and Zebulon's twin brother, John Estey.

The Brown family resided at Middle Andover, in Victoria County, N.B., where John Brown was a farmer and lumberman. In April , 1852, his father had deeded him a 120 acre part of the family farm. On July 10th, 1854, David H. Brown had conveyed to his brother, John, that portion of the family homestead he had received as an inheritance in the will of his father. On July 30, 1861, John Z. Brown was deeded by Charles W. G. Brown, that part of Lots Numbered 5 and 6, at Aroostook, in the Parish of Andover, Victoria County, N. B., and described as the upper two thirds part of the homestead property lying between the Queens Highway leading to Upper Canada and the River Saint John. BROWN FAMILY RESEARCH

Researching the Alexander Brown family has been difficult to document and I have spent many hours attempting to establish correct genealogical information for this family. The Probate Records for Victoria County, N. B., are filed in the N. B. Archives at Fredericton and the following Last Will and Testament was among the registered documents at the Archives, giving a good start for researching the family. Many hours of further research are needed before my task is completed.

The Last Will and Testament of

ABRAHAM BROWN

" In the name of God, Amen. I Abraham Brown of Andover in the County of Victoria, Province of New Brunswick, being weak in body but of sound mind. Blessed by God; do this twenty ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty two make this my last will and testament in form and manner following that is to say, First I resign my body to the dust from whence it came and my soul to God who gave it and as to my worldly Goods after my funeral expenses are defrayed and all my debts payed I give and bequeath all my Estate both Real and personal unto John Z. Brown David H. Brown and Charles William Grandson Brown to them and their Heirs and Assigns forever with some reserve that is to say that the above named Heirs shall pay unto Phebe Bryent twenty shillings and unto Deborah Cliff twenty shillings and unto Mary Smith also. And I do hereby constitute and appoint my son George A. Brown sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament for purposes herein mentioned. In Witness I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above mentioned. "

Signed and sealed in the presence of
George Dingee
John Montgomery
Z. B. Brown.

Signed, Abraham Brown.

Although the above will only documents George A. Brown as the son of Alexander Brown he does clearly refer to all the remaining males as, " the above named Heirs ", from which I conclude that John Z. Brown, David H. Brown and Charles William Grandson Brown were also sons of Ruth Fiske (Estey) and Alexander Brown. Further evidence reveals the "Z" in the name John Z. Brown stands for "Zebulon", from which I surmise he was named after his grandfather, "Zebulon Estey", and Zebulon Estey's twin brother, "John Estey". As previously noted Abraham Brown had conveyed a part of the family farm to the said John Z. Brown shortly before his decease. A conveyance of this kind is a common occurrence in a family when it is known that one of the children is interested in farming. Soon after the decease of Abraham Brown the remaining heirs who had benefited in the real estate deeded their share or interest in the family farm to the said John Zebulon Brown, showing they had no interest in farming.

In the granting of lands at Queensbury, York County, N.B., Ebenezer Brown was granted a tract of land known and described as Lot Number Sixty Seven. A short distance farther up the Saint John River another lot, described as Lot Number 83, was granted to a Jonathan Brown. In my research I found it very difficult to separate the descendants of Ebenezer Brown from the heirs of Jonathan Brown. Deborah Brown, who appears in the will of Abraham Brown has not been fully documented, however, other researchers who have made a study of the Jonathan Brown family residing on Lot Number 83, refer to Deborah Brown as the daughter of Abraham Brown, son of Ebenezer Brown, and also conclude she was the sister of the Jonathan Brown described in my study. It appears that both families were closely connected and the same given name appears in both families. Through the process of elimination the undocumented Jonathan Brown in my study does appear to be the son of the above Abraham Brown and therefore was included in this study. He was not mentioned in the will because he had died accidentally in the year 1834. Note his children included a son, Abraham, and daughters, Deborah and Phoebe. With reference to Charles William Grandson Brown it has been interpreted by others that he was the grandson of Abraham Brown. One of the children of George Brown is documented in the 1851 Census Returns for the Andover community as " Charles William Brown ", age 15 years, however, when the inherited land was conveyed to the before mentioned John Z. Brown in 1861, one of the shares is from Charles W. G. Brown, yeoman, and is described as, " The upper two thirds of that part of Lots Five and Six lying between the Queens Highway and River Saint John bounded on the upper side by land owned by Daniel Hopkins and on the lower side by land owned by Bedell ". I interpret the initial "G" to stand for " Grandson ".

The Phebe Bryant mentioned in the will is not fully documented, however, in the 1851 Census Returns, it appears she and her husband were residing on the family estate with John Z. Brown and his family.

Who was the Z. B. Brown who witnessed the above will ? The 1851 Census Returns document a Z. B. Brown, age 30 years, his wife, Harriet, and family of three, residing at Middle Andover, Victoria County, N. B.. The Land Registry Office refers to him as Z. Bernard Brown. Possibly his full name was "Zebulon Bernard Brown".
