

Services Today For Silas Deane Nixon Prominent Farmer

Silas Deane Nixon, 82, one of Carroll's best known citizens, died at his home on Carrollton Route 2 Tuesday afternoon after a brief illness. He died at the same place he started keeping house in 65 years ago. Mr. Nixon was a charter member of the Salem Baptist Church which was founded in 1883. He was a faithful member of this church having missed only a few services there and having attended every burial there except three.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Fletcher Nixon; five daughters, Mrs. H. Q. Hinesley, Mrs. W. L. Yates, Mrs. C. W. Fowler all of Carrollton Route 2, Mrs. H. C. Stallings of College Park, Ga., and Mrs. Loran Parker, of Holley Springs, Ga., and one brother, Mr. W. A. Nixon, of Carrollton Route 2.

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday, May 1) from Salem Baptist Church at 11:00 o'clock a. m. with the Rev. Lawrence Akin officiating.
