I Thos. M. Beyley, being of sound mind and disposing memory considering the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make, ordain and publish this my last will and testament.

My will and desire is that after all my just debts including funeral expenses, are paid that all the remaining property real personal or mixed of which I may die seized and possessed, shall be taken in hand by my executor hereinafter named and by him sold, either publicly or privately and the proceeds of such property to be distributed as follows:

1 - One half of the proceeds of said property to go to the heirs of my niece Ruth Jane Alexander living at the time of my death.

2 - One half to go to my niece, Karsadie Gravelly if she be living at the time of my death, and if she be dead, then to such of her heirs as may be living at that time.

I name and appoint my friend Welch Galloway, as my executor to carry out the provisions of this my last will and Testament, to act without bond. I hereby revoke all other wills by me heretofore made.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, This Dec. 9-1911
