Mr F. J. Butzloff
Charlotte Ia.

Dear Sir

Since writing you some time ago requesting you to send me the balance of \$5.25 I had left there in the bank I have received a letter from Mr C. H. Oldsen saying that he holds a check I gave Mr Budersen the 8th of September for \$2.95 and that the Charlotte Trust and Savings Bank refused it. Now I still have my bank book showing my last deposit also check book with stubs showing to whom and the amount of check also balance left there I sent a check to the De vitt Telephone Co for $6\frac{1}{2}\%$

after I gave this check to Mr Burdick I have not heard of that one being refused. Now will you kindly write me and explain why you refused the check.

Resp yours

Fred W. Hacker

Charlotte Record Supplement.

Charlotte, Iowa, July 26, 1917.

BREVITIES.

Business men have placed a handsome boulevard light on the auto turn post at the intersection of First street and Broadway. Besides warning the traveler of the turn, it adds much to the appearance of that portion of the town.

Nathan Tracy, father of Ervan Tracy of Charlotte, died at his home in Maquoketa last Thursday. He was over 70 years of age and leaves two sons and four daughters. The funeral was held Saturday.

Letters received from Miss Helen Gollobit, who is with her mother at Colfax Springs, state that Mrs. Gollobit's health has improved very much since their arrival there. She also says that there is an immense number of people there taking treatment. They are expected home this week.

Private Billy Callahan of Battery A passed through here last Friday on his way to Delmar, where he was called on account of the critical illness of his father. He reports Leo Horan as being well and busy drilling in the excessive heat with the rest of the boys.

We received another letter from Willie Moran this week. He is still in San Francisco, is having a good time and earning his living playing piano for vaudeville theaters. It is quite possible that he will pay Charlotte a visit some time this fall.

W. O. Cornish in writing to the Maquoketa Sentinel from Beaumont, Texas, says: "We are having the hottest, driest weather in years. Am selling 130 to 140 tons of ice daily and can not supply the demand. Rice crops are a failure in many localities where there has been but little rain."

Make your hens lay by getting your meat scraps and ground bone of the Charlotte Coal & Grain Co.

Will Electrify Farms

I have secured the agency for the Warnerlite Individual Electric Light Plants. Farmers and others can have just as good service as the city and very much cheaper. Use your own engine and have 24 hour service. Have a safe light in your barns, sheds, and hay mow. If interested write or call for an estimate.
