

George W. Mullin, born August 28, 1867; living; married Flora Wysong.

May Mullin, born May 29, 1876; married Ed. Heaston.

The way I trace my genealogy as near as I can remember of hearing my mother state, I am correct as far back as my great grand father, who was Jonathan Edwards. I do not know positive whether his father was David or William, it was one or the other, whether William was the brother of Robert and David was the son of William or whether David was the brother of Robert and William was the son of David.

The different associations should all put their shoulders to the wheel and all pull together. This is where we made our mistake about forty years ago. In union there is strength.

GENEALOGY OF LENORA HIATT KING

Leonora King has the same genealogy as the above as Jonathan Edwards was our great grandfather, but she branches from Lavina, who was Jonathan's daughter and married Moses Hiatt.

Lavina was born January 10, 1814; died February 3, 1868. To this union were born four sons and one daughter, namely:

Anderson Hiatt, date of birth not given; single; died December 13, 1889.

Elwood Hiatt, born January 9, 1840; married February 22, 1866; died September 23, 1886.

Cyrus Hiatt, born January 1, 1838; single; died March 5, 1872.

Jesse Hiatt, born October 26, 1846; died August 26, 1887; married September 23, 1869.

Elizabeth Hiatt, born August 18, 1844; single; died December 16, 1868.

Leonora Hiatt King is the daughter of Jesse Hiatt, who married Martha Owens. To this union were born three children, namely:

Ada Hiatt, born January 13, 1871; single; died Nov. 26, 1902.

Leonora Hiatt, born July 28, 1873; married Charles King November 28, 1894.

Elizabeth Hiatt, born November 27, 1881; married Geo. Newbaur January 28, 1923.

Joseph Edwards, the father of Thomas Edwards, resided in the county of King and Queen, State of Virginia. How long or where he came from I have no record.

Joseph Edwards moved to Lincoln County, Kentucky, with some of his sons and daughters. One of his daughters married a Brown, and she was called the "Widow Molly Brown." She may have married again. The sons and daughters of Joseph Edwards married and raised their families in Lincoln County, Kentucky, and by examining the records of the clerk's office for marriage license and land deeds from the year 1760 up may be found something to trace the line of connection and by inquiring of each of them for the family Bible containing the records of Joseph Edwards, it possibly may be found or some other writing that may lead to his ancestors, and give us the desired information.

Thomas Edwards was the son of Joseph Edwards, and Thomas Edwards settled and married three times in Amherst County, Virginia, eight miles from the city of Lynchburg, Va., and raised six sons and six daughters, of whom all are dead but two, Caroline and Minerva.

The sons of Thomas Edwards were: Dr. Wm. Edwards, who died without issue; John M. Edwards, married Mary S. Rucker, of whom Elizabeth Burnet is a granddaughter. James B. Edwards went to St. Louis, from where we had no tidings. Barnette Edwards died without issue. Dr. Vincent A. Edwards died in South Carolina leaving four children, one of whom is James B. Edwards, of Lynchburg (now deceased). Dr. Gustavus A. Edwards resided in Lynchburg, Va., and died in 1865, leaving four boys and four girls, all who lived in Lynchburg, Va., except John Edwards, who lived in Tennessee, now dead, and his brother, Joseph Edwards, who died in St. Louis.

The names of the daughters of Thomas Edwards are: Lucy, who married a Jones and moved to Ohio; Rhoda married and lived in Lynchburg, Va., and died leaving one daughter. Caroline married and lived in Lynchburg; Elizabeth married James Smith Walker, died and left eight living children. James B. Edwards married one of them, Elizabeth, her daughter. Vincent Barnette Walker is a son of Elizabeth and James Smith Walker, and married Louisa J. Kendall, of Paris, Tenn.

The following is a record of James Smith Walker and his wife, Elizabeth Edwards Walker, and their children and grandchildren, by their son, Vincent Barnette Walker and his wife.

I am one of the daughters of Vincent Barnette Walker and wife marked by (x) below—Nola P. Walker. My name is now Mrs. John D. Cooke, 100 Hermanda street, Memphis, Tenn. I sent this record to the South Carolina Association by Miss Artie Wilson, secretary of that association, and they said we were descendants of John Edwards, who was a brother of Robert.

This Is Copied From the Family Bible of Vincent Barnett Walker, Now in Possession of Mrs. A. B. Trousdale, Paris, Tenn.

Vincent Barnett Walker was married to Louisa J. Kendall on December 12, 1854. To this union were born nine children:

Robert Johnson Walker, born Sept. 10, 1855.

Margaret E. Walker, born Dec. 10, 1857.

Jarrett Walker, born Feb. 3, 1860.

Kate Kane Walker, born Sept. 3, 1862.

Joe Walker, born April 3, 1865.

Wales Walker, born Oct. 11, 1867.

*Nola P. Walker, born Nov. 19, 1870.

Alexander Campbell Walker, born Oct. 19, 1872.

Ruth Walker, born June 26, 1875.

This is a true copy of James Smith Walker and Elizabeth Edwards Walker's family, copied from the family Bible of Vincent Barnett Walker in 1851.

This is now in the family Bible of Vincent Barnett Walker, and is in the possession of Mrs. A. B. Trousdale, Paris, Tennessee.
