In his well marked Bible two particular texts are heavily underscored, with the marginal note that they were the last texts quoted by his father before he passed away, one being found in Psalms, 42 11—"Why art thou cast down, oh, my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God." The other is Psalms, 50 16—"Call upon me in the day of trouble. I will deliver thee," These the doctor repeated frequently during his last illness, thus making the last texts his father repeated his own.
