

DOBE, John, Sr.: Leg.- To my granddaughter, Mary Vinsen, and her child, Thomas a mare and colt. "To loving grandchildren in general" one shilling each. To son, John Dobe, Jr., the land he now lives on for life, on the south side of Myery Meddow, 200 acres, at his death to his elder son, John Dobe. To son, Robert, the land I live on, on the north side of Myery Meddow, 200 acres, all the rest of my estate not given to be possessed by my son, Robert Dobe, and makes him Exer. 19 Mar., 1716/17. Prob.: 15 Aug., 1722. Wit: John Scott, Sr., Bethyer Scott, John Scott, Jr. Book 7, p. 415.

DOBY, John: Leg.- To my wife, Ann, all that Plantation and land where I dwell - containing 533 acres with houses, etc. for her life. At her decease to my two sons, Peter Doby and Robert Doby, to be equally divided. To my wife, I give an entry of 200 acres of same which I have in the county of Prince George during the term of her life, at her decease I devise it to my two sons, Peter and Robert Doby. To my wife, I give all my slaves, goods, chattels, personal estate, etc. and make her my Exerx. 3 July, 1735. Prob.: 15 June, 1737. Wit: Thomas Eldridge, Sr., Thomas Eldridge, Jr. Book 8, p. 700.